Water Tax Showdown Off To May

Directors Debate Rates Boosts, Property Levy

Directors of Marin Municipal Water District yesterday postponed until May decision on whether to levy a property tax, after once voting 3-to-2 to do so.

It would be the first property tax levied in the district's history.

The delay was asked by President William A. Marcus, who opposed the tax.

The district needs about 6.1 million dollars for a 10-year construction program to take care of expected population growth, according to william R. Seeger, its general manager.

Marcus said he would prefer to increase water rates perhaps 10 per cent, noting that such a rate would still be in linc with rates charged for water elsewhere in the Bay Area.

Always in the past, he said, the district has been able to construct such dams, treatment plants and long pipelines without resorting to the property tax. Also he noted, a rate increase would bring in extra money from governmental users, exempted from a tax.

Hamilton Air Force Base, San Quentin prison and Forts Barry, Baker and Cronkhite together would pay an extra $25,000 if rates went up 12 and one-half per cent, he said.

The tax supporters were led by Director Robert G. Anderson, who said land owners in Marin have become rich through sale of undeveloped land, and its increase in value has been due, in part, to the existence of Marin Municipal Water.

He added, however, that the entire cost of the improvements should not be carried by a property tax. He proposed a rate increase of perhaps 5 per cent, be coupled with the tax. After six years, he suggested, the tax could be eliminated.

Marcus said he doubted the tax would ever be eliminated, once imposed. Director L. L. Stanley agreed.

Director William C. Herup sided with Anderson, estimating that about $200,000 in revenue could be diverted away from district customers to owners of undeveloped land if tax

Viet Bombing Pace Steps Up —Day, Night

SAIGON (UPI)—A force of 230 aircraft from the four U.S. military services today carried out a dawn-to-dusk saturation bombing of a dense forest believed to shelter the Viet Cong supreme headquarters in South Viet Nam. It was the largest anti-guerrilla air action of the war.

Tonight three waves of South Vietnamese air force A1E Skyraiders under the command of Vice Air Marshal Nguyen Cao Ky hit North Viet Nam, setting a military camp on fire and then sinking three North Vietnamese naval vessels in the South China Sea.

It was the second consecutive night of attacks on the north and marked the start of round-the-clock bombing of the Communists. American and Vietnamese planes protected by an anti-MIG screen of jets bombed other targets in North Viet Nam by daylight.

Poll Place Notices All Lack Addresses

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Next Tuesday's elections in school districts throughout Marin County have become one gigantic guessing game.

One of the biggest questions looming today was who is responsible? Even the Marin County Grand Jury has been unable to figure that one out.

All notices sent voters have left out the addresses of polling places. This is not so drastic when a public building is the polling place, but for those voting in a private garage, the polling place becomes a real mystery.

MANY CALLS

These questions and hundreds of others like them have been pouring in over the phone at the county superintendent of schools office, the county clerk's office and the Independent-Journal.

Voters in the Lagunitas School District have received sample ballots with the wrong bond measure listed on them.

Instead of the proposed $200,000 Lagunitas District bond measure, the ballot calls for a vote on "shall the district" issue $3,840,000 in bonds.

COUNTY CLERK

Asst. Supt. of Schools Robert Stannard said today that the addresses of all polling places were supplied to the county clerk and it was assumed the clerk would include the address on the polling place cards which were sent out with sample ballots.

"We never received any addresses," County Clerk George H. Gnoss countered.

Gnoss said he was simply instructed to mail out the information supplied by the schools office and the addresses were not included.

Election Clerk John Musser said Gnoss has told him to make no comment to the press. Two departments are involved and "I am not the head of a department," Musser said.

NEW BALLOTS

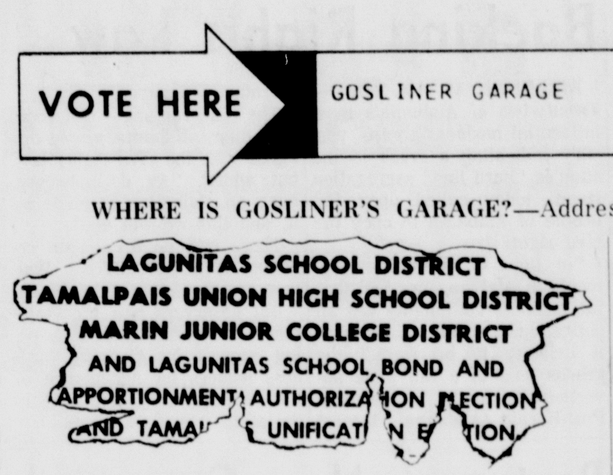

However, Musser said new sample ballots for Lagunitas with the correct description of the bond issue will go in the mail tomorrow.

The regular ballot for use Tuesday also had to be corrected.

Gnoss said the Lagunitas error was the fault of the printers. Proofs read by his office were correct, Gnoss said.

Sally Parrulli of the City and County Division of Diamond National Co. in San Francisco, the company that printed the election supplies, confirmed that the firm made the error in inserting the wrong bond election fig-

HIGHLY CONFUSING—Under the sample ballot, heading at top, which specifies Marin Junior College, Tamalpais Union High School and Lagunitas School Districts, appears bond issue wording shown, asking vote on issuance by "the district" of $3,840,000 in bonds. None of the three districts has such a bond issue, and the ballots have created considerable confusion among Lagunitas voters.

VOTING INFLUENCE CHARGE IS PROBED

Grand Jury Investigating Tam District Officials' Articles In 'House Organ'

Marin County grand jury yesterday launched an investigation into charges that Tamalpais High School District officials violated the Education Code in attempting to influence outcome of next Tuesday's unification election.

George R. Scott, foreman, said the query resulted from a written request by Leo Souza, chairman of Citizens Against Forced Unification, and is being conducted by his entire panel.

No conclusion was reached at yesterday's regular session, Scott said, and the study will resume at the next meeting, April 28.

Scott said, that if any violation is found, the jury will attempt to prevent any recurrence. He also said if there is finding of improper spending of school district money, the persons found responsible will be directed by the jury to reimburse the district.

Souza's group had accused district officials of using district funds to influence passage of the unification issue through at least two articles in the April publication of "District Doings."

Dist. Supt. Chester G. Carlisle replied, however, that the publication is, in effect, a house organ, not intended for general circulation.

Souza said his investigation request was based on a finding by Asst. County Counsel Richard V. Godino that the articles —which reported pro-unification views of citizens, teachers groups, and the district administration—were "improper" under Section 1073 of the Education Code.

A county grand jury in 1959 censured Tamalpais High School District for using district equipment to produce campaign material in favor of a bond issue.

The grand jury yesterday also agreed to write Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, and State Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, backing a bill now before the Senate to carry over a portion of grand jury members from year to year.

Scott said this would assure each grand jury of experienced members, and prevent each new panel from wasting time learning procedure from judges, district attorney, and other officials.

He said no recommendation was reached on how many panel members should be retained each year.

Most Marin Retail Food Outlets Threatened By Strike Of Clerks

Marin County was threatened today with a grocery clerk strike that could close most of the county's retail food outlets.

No date was set for the walkout, but nogotiations have broken down between Retail Clerks Union Local 1119 and organizations representing most of the county's markets.

The clerks union has negotiated with county grocers through the Food Industry Labor Service since Jan. 15, is seeking a wage rate equal to that of the same union in San Francisco.

Grocery clerks in Marin receive $118 a week while those in San Francisco get 127.40, said Lorin T. Young, secretary-treasurer of the Marin County union.

Marin employers had agreed to a contract which would eventually equal San Francisco wages, but which was 11 months behind the step-raise agreement that the San Francisco union has he said.

Yesterday union members voted unanimously not to accept the employers' offer.

Young said that he will seek individual contracts with each

WINDS KEEP SALMON FLEET AT DOCK

About two dozen salmon trollers, iced and ready to go, remained tied up at the Napa Street pier in Sausalito today as the commercial salmon season opened. Fierce southeast winds prevented the boats from putting to sea. Cass Gidley of Casserino's, Sausalito fish merchants, said prices to fishermen would be down a few cents from last year—when the boats set out. He said they will range from 37 to 62 cents per pound, depending on the size of the salmon. (Independent-Journal photo)

Good Friday Services Set

Marin residents will attend Good Friday services tomorrow in churches throughout the county.

Members of many congregations participated in Maundy Thursday observances today in commemoration of the Last Supper.

Among the Good Friday services will be a special union service from 12:30 to 2 p.m. tomorrow at the First Baptist Church of San Anselmo. The announcement was made today by Rev. Paul H. Buchholz, coordinator of union services for the Marin Council of Churches.

Cancer Causing Agent In Polio Vaccine Scares

By PAT McGRADY

(10th in a series)

In the spring of 1961, a few scattered scientists came up with an alarming conclusion: Many millions of people inadvertently had been exposed to a cancer virus hidden in polio vaccine.

The cancer causing agent was called Simian-Virus 40 (or SV-40) because it was one of many unidentified particles which existed naturally in kidney cells of Asiatic monkeys. There, it appeared completely harmless, the monkeys healthy, the cells undamaged.

But when SV-40 was added to cultures of kidney cells from African monkeys, the cells blistered, bubbled and died. In new-born hamsters, SV-40 produced cancers.

The polio virus is grown in monkey kidney cells and then either weakened or killed for vaccine. But the contaminating

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Suicide Follows Mercy Killing

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The fatal shooting of Mary Happer, 61-year-old sister-in-law of Gen. Maxwell Taylor in a nursing home here was described by police today as a "mercy killing."

Her best friend, Miss Dorothy Butts, 35, of Bethesda, Md., the alleged slayer, shot herself to death in her automobile parked in front of the Bethesda police headquarters last night.

Mary Happer

A note found on Miss Butts' body told the story in a single, sad sentence:

"Today, I killed my best friend, Mary Happer of 7305 River Rd., Bethesda, Md., who has been suffering so cruelly from cancer."

Police said Miss Butts drove the 125 miles from her home and arrived at the High Oaks home for Christian Scientists before 9 a.m. She left almost immediately to take Mrs. Happer for a ride in the country.

It was 4 p.m. before the two ladies returned to room 8 on the first floor of the home. They were in good spirits and there was no indication of the tragedy that would happen in only half an hour.

South Viets Applaud Execution

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (UPI)—A Vietnamese firing squad today executed a young Viet Cong terrorist who tried to bomb a hotel filled with American servicemen.

Le Dua

A crowd of about 2,000 civilians and hundreds of Vietnamese troops sat in the bleachers of Da Nang's soccer stadium and watched the condemned man die.

A ripple of applause swept across the stadium as bullets tore into the body of Le Dua, 24, a Communist agent with a long record of terrorist activities.

Le Dua was led into the stadium by Vietnamese troops and bound to a stake in front of the grandstand. The firing squad was composed of 12 soldiers, six kneeling in the front rank and six standing behind.

Le Dua was the confessed leader of three separate terrorist squads operating in the Da Nang area.

Judy's In Hawaii

HONOLULU (AP) — Entertainer Judy Garland's presence in Hawaii became known yesterday when fireman arrived at her Waikiki vacation cottage and found her fighting a fire. Her daughter, Loran, 12, phoned the fire department. Five fire trucks responded and extinguished the blaze. Damage was slight, firemen said.

Peace Corps Quits Indonesia Efforts

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—U.S. presidential envoy Ellsworth Bunker's mission to Indonesia ended today with agreement to pull out the American Peace Corps, long a target of Indonesia's Communists.

Bunker and President Sukarno issued a communique saying the corps will withdraw in the next few weeks because of "certain tensions" between the United States and Indonesia. About 35 American volunteers have been working in the sprawling island nation, most of them as athletic coaches.

The communique indicated that U.S. aid to Indonesia will be limited henceforth to technical assistance to a few Indonesian universities. American aid already has been slashed to less than $3 million a year from a previous level of more than $100 million.

The United States shut down its information services after Communist-led demonstrators attacked them and the Indonesian government halted their operations.

Alabama Businessmen Backing Rights Law

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—Twenty-two of Alabama's most influential business groups, possibly indicating a crack in the state'es "hard line" segregation stand, today called upon the people of Alabama to obey the civil rights law.

"In light of recent developments in Alabama, we feel that the business community has an obligation to speak out for what it believes to be right," the groups said in a full page advertisement in the Birmingham Post-Herald, Alabama's largest morning newspaper.

The far-ranging statement said many Alabama people disagree with the civil rights law, but added, "we do, however, have an obligation to abide by it, and this we will do."

There was no immediate reaction from Gov. George Wallace or other state officials.

But observers saw the statement as an indication of growing support by Alabama business leaders for acceptance of the law, severely criticized in the state.

Pentagon's News Compared To Ford's Publicity Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Freedom of Information Committee charged today that Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and his information chief "confuse the Defense Department's public information policy with the public relations program of the Ford Motor Co."

The criticism was delivered by the Freedom of Information Committee of the American Society of Newspaper Editors in its annual report delivered to the opening session of the society's three-day convention. McNamara is a former Ford executive.

"It has not been an encouraging year for freedom of information," said the committee headed by Creed C. Black, managing editor of the Chicago Daily News.

Still on the books, the committee said, is a 1962 memorandum issued by McNamara and Assistant Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester, the department's information chief, requiring that a monitor be present at all Pentagon interviews. The rule apparently is not being vigorously enforced now, the committee said.

"Meanwhile, however, their 'one-voice' philosophy has been extended from the halls of the Pentagon to some military installations in Viet Nam," the report went on.

The committee said it shares the objections voiced by Wes Gallagher, general manager of The Associated Press. Its report quoted Gallagher:

"Barring correspondents from free access to air bases and other military installations and providing an 'escort' for every correspondent is clearly aimed not at security matters but at controlling what American fighting men say."

Easter Tourists In Rome Again As Rail Strike Ends

As pilgrims and holidayers once more poured into Rome, Pope Paul VI prepared to inaugurate three days of pre-Easter ritual by washing the feet of 12 physically handicapped youths in the Basilica of St. John Lateran.

The pontiff heightened the personal humility of the Holy Thursday rite this year by choosing instead of seminarians or priests 12 young men who are blind, deaf, crippled from polio or missing an arm or leg.

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — Kenya has agreed to accept a gift of arms from the Soviet union. "The arms are going to be beneficial to Kenya and will not be used for external invasions," said Defense Minister Njorge Mungai.

Jersey Isle Plane Crash Fatal To 26

ST. HELIER, Channel Islands (AP)—A hospital built by the Germans during World War II was turned into a morgue today for 26 persons killed in the crash of a British airliner last night on the Isle of Jersey.

Only the French stewardess survived after the twin-engine DC3, trying to land in a fog, plunged into a potato field about 500 yards short of the St. Helier runway. The plane had taken off from Paris with 17 French and Italian hotel workers coming to the holiday island for Easter, six British residents of the Channel Islands and a crew of four.

The stewardess was reported in fair condition.

Viet Policy Lauded At Goldwater Dinner

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Republican party leaders called for a firm stand in Viet Nam at a dinner last night honoring Barry Goldwater, who once again pleaded for an end to intraparty bickering.

Friends and supporters showed up 1,700 strong for the $100-a-couple testimonial dinner for the former Arizona senator and 1964 GOP presidential candidate.

And he said the President's policy is likely to prevail, "largely because of solid Republican support for a firm stand in South Viet Nam."

Ray Bliss, the former Ohio Republican leader who took over as a national chairman April 1, praised Goldwater as "one man who could be counted upon any time to go anywhere to raise funds for the party or help a fellow Republican."

The partisan crowd saved its mightiest cheers for Goldwater, who said: "There's no reason why the world's greatest power should talk about negotiations or a settlement in Viet Nam."

Goldwater told the audience, "We are a minority party in the state and nation. Le's not choose up sides and fight each other but get on with winning the 1966 elections."

Refuse Bill Hike Date Is Confused

Garbage collection bills have been sent to Corte Madera residents charging the new higher rates approved by the town council, although the mayor and town clerk were under the impression new rates would not go into effect until June 15.

The bills brought a flood of telephone calls to the town hall and to the office of the Mill Valley Refuse Service.

Town Clerk Betty S. Behel said today the agreement approved by the council has not been signed by city officials or placed on file with city. Lewis Figone, operating partner of the collection firm, said he has signed the agreement.

The date the rates were to be effective, April 1, was on the second page of the document, he said.

The agreement was then sent to Town Atty. Sherrod S. Davis, who said today the date was indeed there. He said the councilmen apparently did not realize what date had been set. The franchise with the firm calling for the old rates will expire June 15.

Mayor Edward W. Colthurst has ordered the matter to be put on the town council agenda for Monday He said the council will decide when the new rates go into effect.

Figone promised that if the rate increase is delayed, all Corte Madera residents will receive credit on their bills next month to compensate for an overcharge on April bills.

Contract Signed To Publish Book

Dr. Martha Bruckner of 168 Camino de Herrera, San Anselmo, professor of German at Sonoma State College, has signed a contract with a Dutch publisher for a new edition of her doctoral dissertation, first released in Romania 27 years ago.

Sample Ballot Errors Make Vote Mystery

ure for Lagunitas district.

Miss Parrulli also said proofs of Mill Valley sample ballots returned to the company included an order to insert "incumbent" under Mrs. Gross's name, but the printers failed to do this.

Deputy County Counsel Richard V. Godino said the office responsible for the printing is the office that orders the ballots, in this case the county elections department. There have been school elections in the past where the county counsel has ordered the ballots and done the proof-reading.

Stannard said he believed Godino's office was responsible for the wording on bond requirements. Godino said his office writes the wording for the bond issues, but the county clerk's office checks the proof.

Godino said "You don't use imagination" in the wording of bond issues, since the wording is pretty well set by bonding attorneys. Thus the lack of specific reference to which district in the Lagunitas vote is asking a bonds and state loan will continue, he said.

Lagunitas voters found it confusing, however, since the heading of the ballot lists three school districts: Marin Junior College District, Tamalpais High School District and Lagunitas School District. Candidates for trustees of all three appear on the ballot.

The most widespread complaint over the election mixup was prompted by the lack of addresses.

Perhaps the strangest tale was provided by Mrs. Orval J. Smith of 14 Prospect Avenue, San Anselmo. She said her notice came with the polling place designated as "Acquilino Garage."

She had no idea where that was. Usually the Smiths vote at Wade Thomas School. She checked with the clerk's office which referred her to the county schools office.

There she learned that the address of the polling place was at 5 Jordan Court. She also discovered that the name was misspelled. "It's Aquilino," she said. "That explains why I could not find it in the phone book."

Gnoss said two advertisements listing both name and address of all polling places will be run in the Independent-Journal. He hopes the first will run tomorrow and the second on Monday. These will be run at county expense.

Stannard said there is no legal requirement for sample ballots for a school election. "Dr. (Virgil S.) Hollis wanted to run them though," Stannard said.

(Hollis is now on a tour of Russia and Europe and is not due home until after the election.)

Stannard said he thought the schools office should get out of the election field. "We have no one here trained for elections," he said.

The county superintendents were put squarely in the election business two years ago by an amendment to the state code that had overwhelming support from the superintendents themselves.

Since then, Stannard said, superintendents in many counties have contracted with the elections department to handle school elections.

Godino said the county counsel's office and the election department really only help out now as a matter of courtesy. Under the new law, the election should be entirely the job of the schools office, he explained.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said he will expand his investigation of voter registration complaints to include the latest mistakes.

"I may recommend substantial changes," Bruce said.

The Marin County Grand Jury, at its regular session yesterday, evidently was looking at the issue along similar lines.

"We feel someone is responsible for this, but we haven't determined who is responsible or what correction is needed," Jury Foreman George R. Scott said.

Scott said the jury's investigation will continue at its next session, April 28. The entire jury is looking into the matter, he reported.

Gnoss, who was before the jury yesterday, would make no comment on the proceedings today.

The recent flurry of errors followed the discovery last week that the designation of incumbent was omitted on the sample ballot for Mill Valley School Trustee Joyce R. Gross.

Also discovered last week was omission from the Novato sample ballots of the measure for assumption of a portion of San Rafael High School District bonds in the former San Jose District. This issue is necessary because the San Jose District has unified with the Novato District.

The schools office took the blame for the mistake in the first sample ballot for Novato. Stannard said his office failed to give the information to the elections department.

Stannard said his office has been able to answer most of the complaints about polling places and supply the addresses, but when citizens want to know more technical things like the precinct number, the call has to be transferred to the election department.

Residents of several districts had another complaint: the lateness of sample ballots.

In West Marin, Lagunitas and perhaps some other school districts, residents received ballots Tuesday and yesterday which were accompanied by instructions that absentee ballots must be applied for by 5 p.m. Monday.

Mrs. Robert L. Tuckey of 16 Evergreen Drive, Greenbrae, was among many who help from the Independent-Journal today.

"I think it's all a plot to keep us from the polls," she said.

supermarket in Marin County before a strike is set.

He said those who do not meet the union's demands will be struck.

The complicated disagreement between the Marin union and the markets involves an unsigned, retroactive contract contract which offers Marin County retail clerks substantially the same wages as San Francisco workers, but not at the same time.

Retail Clerks Local 119 has more than 650 members and controls some 95 per cent of the county's supermarkets, said Young.

Assemblyman Surrenders In Bribe Charge

LOS ANGELES (AP) — State Assemblyman Lester A. McMillan, 62, surrendered in Superior Court today after a County Grand Jury indictment charged him with soliciting a $10,000 bribe.

Surrendering with him was Philip Froomer, 62, an Inglewood shoe store owner who was also indicted yesterday.

"I'm not guilty," McMillan stated.

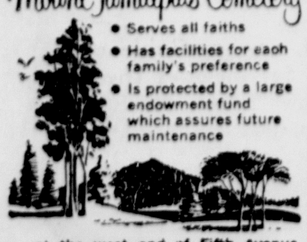

After the court session, marshals escorted McMillan and Froomer to the County Jail, where they were booked and released.

The indictment accused McMillan of suggesting to Culver City businessmen in 1962 that they turn $10,000 over to Froomer for use in getting a change in state plans to build Marina Freeway through Culver City.

More Rain On The Way

The Weather Bureau said there was a 70 per cent chance of rain tonight and tomorrow. Small craft warnings were posted for south winds of 20 to 35 miles per hour.

San Rafael received .12 of an inch of rain during the 24 hours ending at noon today. Highest reading for the 24-hour period to 8 a.m. was in Woodacre, which had .25 of an inch.

Other readings to 8 a.m. were:

Hamilton Air Force Base and San Anselmo, .13 of an inch; Novato, Larkspur, .11; Mill Velley, .05; Tamalpais Valley .04; Ross and Chevy Chase (Larkspur) .03.

Sausalito and Point Reyes Station reported no precipitation at 8 a.m., but rain began after that in both places.

Parents File $100,000 Death Suit

The Greenbrae parents of two girls killed by a car in Kentfield last Jan. 14 have filed a $100,000 wrongful death suit in Marin Superior Court.

Grover E. and Mary J. Grady, 213 North Almenar Drive, allege that negligent driving by Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, 69, of 57 Corte Solano, Greenbrae, caused deaths of the sisters, Lisa, 10, and Leslie Ann, 6.

A third girl, Tracy Cotton, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy M. Cotton, 130 Tioga Lane, Kentfield, was injured in the accident, but recovered.

The suit, filed today, includes $25,000 damages to the health of Mrs. Grady as result of the loss of her children.

California Highway Patrol said the three girls were walking to Wolfe Grade School about 8:45 a.m. when the car of Mrs. Crawford, a medical secretary, struck a curb on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at Manor Road, careened across the westbound lanes, bounced over to the raised center island, then crossed back into the westbound lanes before jumping onto the sidewalk and striking the trio.

Anderson also gained support from Director George W. Thierbach, but he said the rate increase should carry a little more of the burden than a property tax.

Marcus then asked for a delay until May 12, and Anderson quickly agreed, saying he hoped there would be good representation by the public at that time. He noted only two persons other than an Independent-Journal reporter, attended the session yesterday to hear the question discussed.

Token Raise May Delay Steel Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The steel industry offered the United Steelworkers Union a nine-cent an hour pay hike today to remove the threat of a steel strike May 1, The Associated Press learned.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, told a secret meeting of top-level union bargainers:

"We are willing to make a small down payment May 1. But we are willing to go no higher than two per cent."

At a meeting about an hour earlier, the union told the industry it is ready to extend the May 1 strike deadline in return for a token, but immediate, increase in wages or benefits.

The arrangement would amount to a contract extension. How long it would be extended was not learned immediately.

Easter Barnyard Opening Tomorrow

Rain has held up opening of the Eastern barnyard in Mill Valley's Lytton Square but, rain or shine, the children's attraction is expected to be open tomorrow.

Chicks, ducks and rabbits are to inhabit the barn sponsored by the chamber of commerce at 85 Throckmorton Avenue, according to Granville L. Beedle, secretary-manager.

Lumber Stolen

Theft of $500 worth of lumber from a construction site in Tiburon was reported by Associated Contractors of Palo Alto, sheriff's officers said today.

OBITUARIES

Alfred H. Newman Dies At 79

Alfred H. Newman, 79, of 205 Laurel Place, Apt. 13, San Rafael, died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness.

A native of Los Alamos, Santa Barbara County, Newman had lived in Marin County 30 years. He retired from the Langendorf Bakery Co. two years ago as promotion manager after 26 years of service. He also performed as a singer and dancer for many charity benefits.

He and his wife, Ethel M., celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary in February. He was a member of the Elks Lodge in San Rafael.

Surviving are his wife; two sons, Jack M. of San Rafael and Alfred H. Jr. of Terra Linda, and three sisters, Mrs. Helen Wasserman of San Francisco and Mrs. Edith Colman and Mrs. Marguerite Holloway of Los Angeles.

Funeral will be at 10:30 a.m. Friday at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Inurnment will be at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

ROBERT HALL

Rosary will be recited at 8:30 p.m. Sunday at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

A native of Minnesota, Hall came to California as a young man and moved to Marin County four years ago when he started work at San Quentin Prison as printing supervisor for the San Quentin News.

MRS. DOBBINS

Funeral will be held in Redwood City tomorrow for Mrs. Miriam L. Dobbins, 54, of Corte Madera, who died Tuesday in a San Francisco hospital.

She was the wife of Robert Ward Dobbins, general manager of Blue Canyon Lumber Co. of San Rafael, and formel lieutenant colonel in the Army. They made their home at 21 Sea Wolf Passage in Corte Madera for the past six years.

Mrs. Dobbins, a registered nurse, had been ailing from a heart condition.

Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Susan Frisk of Redwood City, and two brothers, Jack F. and Walter J. Yule of Wisconsin.

Services will be at 2 p.m. at the Woodside Chapel of Crippen and Flynn, 400 Woodside Road, Redwood City. Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

County Goes To Court To Get Overdue Fees

The Marin County Board of Supervisors has inaugurated a new policy for collection of county fees.

The board Tuesday authorized court action to recover $900 due for such things as building inspection, animal pound quarantine and juvenile hall costs.

Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell said similar action will be before the board in weeks to come. An account will not be proposed for court action by his office until all other efforts at collection have failed, he said.

In the past many of these overdue accounts were carried on the books for months with repeated but unsuccessful efforts at collection. Previous boards of supervisors were reluctant to institute court action for collection, Mitchell said.

Tuesday's action authorized small claims court suits against Frank Myers of Mill Valley for $42 in building inspection fees, against Clifford Parlee of Kentfield for $138 in building inspection fees, against Don G. Minkus of Westminster, Orange County, for $39 to cover a returned check on a municipal court fine, and against Tom Palmer of Novato for $63 to cover a pound quarantine fee.

The board also authorized municipal court suits for fees arising out of lodging juveniles in the juvenile hall.

These were authorized against Mrs. Dorothy Baezaler of Mill Valley for $1,056; Mrs. Alice Baumgardner of Tacoma, Wash., for $400; Mr. and Mrs. Fay H. Blair of San Rafael for $637; Mrs. Mona McGue of Novato for $1,953; Mr. and Mrs. Maynard G. Cleary of Kentfield for $546; Mrs. Nancy Lee Decker of Mill Valley for $927; Joseph Esparza of San Francisco for $304; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fields of Petaluma for $1,739, and Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher of Sausalito for $489.

Car Wash Permit On Agenda In Hub

San Anselmo Planning Commission will review the building permit of Western Associates for a coin-operated car wash at the end of Red Hill Avenue at its 8 p.m. meeting Monday in city hall.

Also on the agenda is a review of planning department slope policy concerning the ratio of slope grade to the required square footage of a subdivision lot, according to Robert Golcher, building inspector.

McCarthy Hits Re-Mapping Plan

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—The proposed reapportionment plan that would lump Marin, Napa and Solano counties into one senatorial district is "ridiculous" and may even be unconstitutional, State Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, declared Tuesday.

A more logical apportionment plan would be to put Marin with either Sonoma County or a part of San Francisco County, said McCarthy.

The San Rafael legislator said that combining Marin, Napa and Solano into one senatorial district may be unconstitutional because the counties are not contiguous by land.

"I think it is ridiculous," McCarthy said. "I will do everything in my power to fight this proposal."

Mill Valley Meters Don't Use Dimes

Yellow stickers have been placed on all Mill Valley parking meters advising meter users not to deposit dimes.

"We have been getting an increasing amount of dimes, along with complaints that dimes don't activate the meters," said Lt. William Walsh. The meters already read that nickels and pennies are acceptable but people don't read them, said the officer.

END OF A LONG, ROUGH RIDE

Mrs. Marion Davis, 28, of 103 LaVerne Avenue, Mill Valley, rode this Volkswagen bus 100 feet down the steep hillside from Muir Woods Road about one-third mile west of Panoramic Highway shortly after noon yesterday, but emerged unhurt after it was stopped by rocks and trees and turned on its side. She told California Highway Patrolmen she momentarily took her eyes off the road, and — whoosh!

Viet Air Raids Start Around-The-Clock

105 Thunderchief jets hit roads, bridges and a river boat land in the daylight raids. Tonight Skyraiders hit military installations between Dong Hoi and Vinh, then swung out over the sea and sank three Communist ships near Tiger Island. The vessels had fired on other raiders.

Today's saturation bombing was the biggest assault of the war against Communist positions in South Viet Nam and was the first time the U.S. Navy and Marine jets have been in combat in the south. They joined U.S. Army and Air Force planes and helicopters in the assault.

The raid was a follow up to the unsuccessful fire raid on another Viet Cong forest headquarters near Saigon. This time the planes rained more than 1,000 tons of bombs on an area four miles long and two miles wide 65 miles north west of Saigon and only 15 miles from neutral Cambodia. Air patrols kept the planes away from Viet Nam's touchy neighbor while Army helicopters raked the area with rockets and machine-gun fire.

U.S. Marine combat troops were disclosed to have been in action Tuesday for the first time since they landed at Da Nang. They joined Vietnamese forces in a bitter daylong battle against a Communist battalion in Thua Thien Province 380 miles northeast of Saigon. The Reds escaped encirclement and fled into the bush.

North Viet Nam reacted sharply to the night attacks, filing an "emergency note of protest" today with the International Control Commission. The note said the raids "have no other purpose than to massacre civilian people."

Salmon Fingerlings Killed By Disease

SACRAMENTO (UPI)— The state disclosed today a "recurring and mysterious" virus has killed about 400,000 king salmon fingerlings and eggs at a hatchery on the American River.

The Fish and Game Department called the disease "potentially very serious," but added the kill at Nimbus Hatchery near here "would have no major effect on the salmon run."

Pro-China Coup Failure Rumored By Bulgarians

SOFIA, Bulgaria (UPI) — Die-hard Stalinists who support Peking in the Sino-Soviet dispute plotted a coup against the government of pro-Moscow Premier Todor Zhivkov but were discovered before they could carry it out, informed sources said today.

The sources said the coup became known April 7 when Ivan Todorov-Gorunya, 48, a member of the ruling central committee of the Bulgarian Communis party, was found shot to death in his apartment. He was an apparent suicide, the sources said.

On the same day, Gen. Tsvetko Anev, commandant of the Soviet military district, disappeared from his office. The sources said he went into hiding but was discovered and placed under arrest. He and Todorov-Gorunya were reported in contact with other conspirators in high government and military posts.

There was no official confirmation of the reported incidents and the city of Sofia itself was calm with life proceeding normally.

Loss of fish and animal life through agricultural pesticides decreased markedly in California last year.

Mrs. Owen Scheduled To Testify In Burglary Case

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Former madam Sally Stanford, who was "lady of the house" in an earlier San Francisco era, was scheduled to testify before a grand jury today in connection with an alleged attempt by two policemen to burglarize her swank mansion.

She will testify in connection with charges that Policemen Salvatore Polani and Patrick Buckman and three ex-convicts planned to loot the plush Pacific Heights home last weekend. Miss Stanford was hospitalized at the time.

Her testimony is a legal maneuver to prove that the men were not in her home with her approval. The ex-cons, Wesley Gant, Louis Romero and Winston Major, were caught by police inside the house after police were tipped off to the robbery attempt. Officers Polani and Buckman were arrested in a car a short distance away.

Judge Donald Constine of the Municipal Court yesterday deferred a decision until Monday on whether to reduce bail for the five suspects. He said he would await action by the grand jury now hearing the case. Miss Stanford, whose real name is Marsha Owens, also maintains a home in Sausalito.

Lagunitas School Sites Debate Steals Candidate Night Spotlight

By FRANK FARRARA

The long-debated question of a school site to serve the Woodacre area erupted again last night at a school board candidates' night at Lagunitas School.

School site selection overshadowed the controversial unification issue and loomed as a threat to passage of the district's proposed $200,000 bond issue next Tuesday.

Residents fired questions at the candidates for Lagunitas School District board at a session sponsored by the San Geronimo Valley Assn., which attracted about 45 persons.

The present board favors a school site on the north side of Sir Francis Drake boulevard for Woodacre, and a site along Tamal Road in Forest Knolls for a third school in the district.

When asked to comment on site selection, the candidates replied as follows:

Mrs. Audrey A. Miller: "I'd rather not put the site across the highway from the populated area of Woodacre."

William M. Scott: "I was on the school site selection committee and I don't like the site across the highway for reasons of safety."

Richard T. Frydenlund: "Woodacre is going to need a school, and we should give consideration to property on the knolls."

Michael D. Healy: "I don't think it should go across the highway."

Then Mrs. Winifred Frederick said, "I think what the people want to know is, if elected, would they put the new school adjacent to the Woodacre Improvement Club?"

Mrs. Miller said she felt the site next to the club, which had long been discussed, was all right.

Scott said he favored a site somewhere between the club site and the proposed location across the highway.

Frydenlund said that a central Woodacre site "would be ideal" and suggested "a site on the knolls in the fringe area of Woodacre."

Healy said he would make an evaluation of the sites before committing himself.

Trustee Glen E. Twitchell urged passage of the $200,000 bond issue and accompanying $300,000 loan next Tuesday which would provide funds for school sites and building.

Donald Pederson of Woodacre, who opposes placing a school opposite the Woodacre Improvement Club, said the present board should have made the sites definite "in writing" so the people could vote on the basis of a particular site.

"How do you expect to pass the bond issue when you don't tell us where the sites will be?" he asked.

Some 400 persons signed a petition against the Woodacre Improvement Club site, Pederson noted.

Twitchell said the bond and loan funds are needed regardless of where the school may be. Voters "will have to have trust in the board, and this faith has not been shown in the past," he said.

Each of the four candidates favored the proposal for unification of all districts in the Tamalpais Union School District, which includes Lagunitas.

The meeting also heard two candidates for the Tamalpais High School District board: Mrs. Gloria Melbostad of Mill Valley and Donald J. O'Leary of Tiburon.

Mrs. Melbostad favored the unification proposal.

O'Leary opposed the unification proposal.

Two other candidates for the Tamalpais board, Edmund J. Thomas Jr. and William B. Lewis, did not attend.

Although the high school board candidates stole some of their thunder, two speakers scheduled to speak on unification added their slants to the issue.

Dr. John C. Siemens of Kentfield, a member of the Tamalpais High School District board, backed overall unification . . . "to provide the best possible educational program for the least money . . . equally for all the children in the district," he said.

Mrs. Frederick, San Geronimo Valley chairman for Citizens Against Forced Unification, said unification might save money in the Lagunitas District "for awhile, but it won't last long."

Meningitis Scare Denied

San Quentin Prison officials today denied that several cases of meningitis had broken out in the prison. Printing instructor Robert L. Hall died of that disease yesterday.

Associate Warden James W. L. Park said a pathologist's report showed that Hall died of "a brain disease, but not meningococcic, or the infectious type of meningitis."

"We have no inmates with it," said Park, although rumors among the prisoners have alarmed some employees.

Officer Says Sit-Ins Calm

BERKELEY (UPI)—A Berkeley police officer has testified that he saw no evidence of any one trying to twist away or kick any of his colleagues who arrested 773 University of California sit-ins last Dec. 3 at Sproul Hall.

Officer Joe Mulvey, whose testimony took up most of the day yesterday at the trial of 155 demonstrators, said the sit-ins did not budge at all when he asked 13 of them to move.

Mulvey said he could not recall if any of the defendants even replied.

NEW WRITE-IN JOINS RACE IN LAGUNITAS

W. D. (Jess) Janssen, San Geronimo general contractor, has re-entered the race for the Lagunitas School District board as a write-in candidate.

Janssen announced that he was back in the race after hearing the four other candidates speak last night at Lagunitas School.

He said he noted "a failure of strength" after listening to their comments and answers to questions.

Janssen filed as a candidate but withdrew from the race a few days later, so his name was not placed on the ballot.

He served as elementary district trustee in Applegate, Ore., until the board was eliminated by unification.

Freedom Worker Seeks Footgear For Youngsters

A Mill Valley doctor who has just returned from civil rights work in Mississippi has been instrumental in getting Marin church groups to send seeds to Mississippi. She is now collecting children's shoes for Mississippi children.

Dr. Dorothea Scoville, 65, of 301 Evergreen Lane, unable to work as a doctor in Mississippi because she could not get a license, worked with Delta ministry on the pre-school program, "Project Head Start," at Greenville.

She asked that persons wishing to give shoes take them to the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee office at Marin Heliport on Highway 101 between Mill Valley and Sausalito.

New Reservist

John Hall, 19, of 75 Wellington Avenue, San Anselmo, joined the San Rafael unit of the Naval Reserve Tuesday night.

Tam Unification Debated; Most Of Audience Opposed

The debate over the proposed Tamalpais Unified School District, continuing right down to the wire, drew few people and produced little new last night in Kentfield.

Only about 30 were in the audience as the Kentfield Civic League presented "Yes on U" advocates Donald Kreps, Redwood High School principal, and Mrs. Ellen Binckley of the County Committee on School District Organization in formal debate with "no on total unification" advocates Mrs. Rachel Conner of the county committee and J.R.B. Ellis of the Kentfield School District board. Judging from their questions, most of the 30 were on the "no" side.

Kreps and Mrs. Binckley insisted that the Tamalpais High School District is the smallest area that should be considered for unification. Ellis and Mrs. Conner said they are for unification, too—but smaller.

Unification is long overdue and should be passed next Tuesday, insisted Kreps.

It should be voted down twice, even 50 times, "until the state wakes up that the people do not want big unifications," declared Mrs. Conner.

Kreps contrasted what can be offered in Adaline E. Kent School, where the debate was held, with what was offered in William Starr Jordan Junior High School in Palo Alto Unified School District when he attended it 25 years ago.

Ellis somewhat spiked this line of argument by bringing out that the Palo Alto Unified district had only about 5,000 enrollment then—little more than a fourth of the present enrollment in the Tam High District and the 11 elementary districts which it is proposed to unify with it.

The opposite teams differed as to the costs of unification. Ellis had figures purporting to show it would increase taxes. Kreps countered with opposite figures prepared by Frank A. Cassou, assistant superintendent for business of the Tam High District.

Kreps did not claim unification would cut taxes, but said it would offer a much broader program in the elementary and junior high schools for the same amount of tax dollars.

The "big district" unification would ignore community interest, claimed Mrs. Conner and Ellis. It would increase community interest, countered Mrs. Binckley.

Kreps said the size of the proposed district is the only real argument against a "yes" vote next Tuesday. All other arguments put forth are actually arguments against any unification plan, he declared.

W. S. J. van Erp, Kentfield Civic League president, chaired the debate and tried — without complete success — to keep the questions from the floor from becoming argumentative.

Right Answer Is Worth $28

The voice is familiar enough. But at least 28 Marinites don't know that the man behind the voice is president of the Marin Visitor Bureau.

The right answer is now worth $28. For during the past two weeks radio KTIM's "Jackpot" announcers have been stumping listeners with the question: Who is president of the Marin Visitors Bureau?

And in the Visitors Bureau office at 824 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, manager Clinton DeLap can't get his work done because of the flood of calls putting the obvious question.

Too Big Tam-wide Unification Plan

Why then are you being asked to pay more taxes for a system which will probably lower the quality of education??

Why establish a bigger school organization when bigger government has usually proven to be more costly??

Why is a "bribe" needed if total unification has educational advantages??

Reasons "Why you should Vote NO on Unification April 20"

TIDELANDS FUND PROPOSAL GAINS

Behr, Bagley Gain Committee Approval For $1.5 Million To Re-Acquire Areas

By WAT TAKESHITA

SACRAMENTO — A history-making bill that would provide $1,500,000 in state matching funds to re-acquire tidelands for public recreation and conservation won unanimous approval of an Assembly committee yesterday.

Marin County Supervisor Chairman Peter H. Behr joined forces with Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, to push the bill (AB 1039) through the Public Utilities and Corporations Committee.

Both Behr and Bagley conceded the bill still has a long ways to go. Its next step is the Assembly Ways and Means Committee.

Both Bagley and Behr spoke up for the bill late yesterday.

After the measure had breezed through the committee, headed by Joseph M. Kennick, D-Long Beach, Supervisor Behr declared:

"I'm pleased to be up here and see it get off the launching pad. It is a good beginning step in the right direction."

Commenting on the recent exchange of criticism between the Marin supervisors and Marin's legislators in Sacramento, Behr added:

"The Marin Board of Supervisors, Bill (Bagley) and Jack (Senator McCarthy) are all working in harmony for a common purpose, despite the fuss and fury that you've been reading about in the papers."

Bagley said the bill represents brand new concept in the history of California.

"As of now there is no state policy which even hints at re-acquisition of privately - owned tidelands," noted Bagley. "This bill would authorize the State Lands Commission to cooperate with local agencies for joint funding to re-purchase tidelands which the state at one time sold to private owners.

"This bill goes hand-in-glove with the McAteer bill to set up a Bay Conservation and Development Commission and impose a short term moratorium."

The McAteer bill would set up a commission to pass on by fill permits until a comprehensive plan for bay conservation and development is completed by 1969.

Assemblyman Bagley said his bill to reacquire tidelands would come into play after the "moratorium" ends in 1969. Funds will have to be provided to acquire private tidelands, said Bagley, "because you just can't take private property without just compensation."

Bagley and Behr said they hoped the state funds provided by AB 1239 could be augmented by funds from local agencies, private organizations and possibly federal funds for open area acquisition.

Another Bagley bill (AB 1024), which would convey state tidelands within Point Reyes National Seashore to the federal government, also passed the same Assembly committee yesterday. Both Behr and Bagley spoke for that bill too.

Mill Valley Crash Hurts Sonoma Driver

Lawrence E. Posey, 56, of Boyes Hot Springs was hospitalized in good condition today after his pick-up truck went off Shoreline Highway at 8:25 p.m. yesterday.

Posey suffered a concussion and scrapes on his hands when his truck crashed through 20 feet of guard rail and hit a tree about a mile west of the Richardson Bay Bridge.

Here Is Breakdown On San Rafael Vote

More than half of the registered voters in the city of San Rafael cast ballots Monday, although the over-all turnout for the combined city-schools election was only 48.5 per cent of those registered.

A breakdown of the ballot tallies today showed that 52.6 per cent of 13,975 registered to vote in the city itself went to the polls.

The over-all percentage was pulled down by the turnouts in San Rafael Elementary and High School Districts outside the city limits.

Four ballots were necessitated for the election because of the overlapping city-school district boundaries, as follows:

1. City of San Rafael in San Rafael Elementary School District. Of the 11,616 registered in this area, 6,320 voted, or 54.4 per cent.

2. City of San Rafael in Dixie Elementary School District. Of 2,359 registered voters, 1,034 cast ballots, or 43.9 per cent. (Thus, in these two areas together, comprising the city, the ballot total was 7,354 out of 13,975 eligible.)

3. San Rafael Elementary School District outside the city limits. Of 3,060 registered, 1,311 voted, or 42.8 per cent.

4. San Rafael High School District outside the city and the San Rafael Elementary School District (major part of Dixie School District). Of 3,921 registered in this area, only 1,504 voted, or 38.2 per cent.

Two hundred absentee ballots were not included in the breakdown.

City Clerk W. C. Cornwell, who supplied the vote figures used in the breakdown, commented that necessity for the four ballots caused him plenty of headaches. In some cases, part of a voting district would be in one category and part in another, so that each voter's address must be checked to see which kind of ballot he should receive.

Voters in the first category could vote on all candidates and measures in the election.

Those in the second category could vote on everything except the San Rafael Elementary School District bond and tax measures.

Those in the third category could vote on the elementary school bond and tax measures and the candidates for board of education, but not on city office candidates nor city measures.

Those in the fourth category could vote only on board of education candidates.

The necessity for four ballots in the city election because of overlapping city-school district boundaries was only part of the duplication caused by this situation.

Next Tuesday, voters will return to the polls for a county-wide school trustee election. In that voting, however, there will be no election for the San Rafael school board, it having been filled at the city election. But there will be election in San Rafael for trustees of Marin Junior College District—a pointless one, with few expected to turn out, since there are only the incumbents running. Also, in the parts of the city and of San Rafael High School District that are outside San Rafael Elementary School District, there will be election for Dixie School District trustees.

Shasta Daisy Proposed As U.S. Flower

A bill to designate the Shasta daisy as the national flower of the United States was introduced in Congress yesterday by Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-Cresent City.

The congressman from the First Congressional District (including Marin) noted that Luther Burbank searched the east coast of the United States for the finest daisies and brought them to Santa Rosa. He then gathered other specimens from throughout the world and perfected the flower which he named the Shasta daisy.

"So has the United States been fashioned from peoples from every corner of the globe, a melting pot of continents and nationalities, working toward perfection as one people—the American," said Clausen.

The United States is the only major nation in the world without a national flower, the congressman said.

Zoning Plan Recommended

Mill Valley planning commissioners Tuesday night recommended rezoning of an area bounded by Ethel Court, Ethel Avenue, Wildomar Street and Edgewood and Marion avenues from single-family lots to 20,000 to 10,000 square feet.

The reason is to bring the zoning more into line with the actual pattern of development, said chairman Robert C. Mountjoy.

Revocation of a use permit of S and A sports car Center, 507 Miller Avenue, was recommended to the city council, the commission saying the permit user has not removed a nonconforming structure on the lot, which was a condition of the permit.

Easter Party Friday

Kiddieland Child Care Center, 221 Belle Avenue, San Rafael, will hold an Easter party for its youngsters from 3 to 5 p.m. tomorrow.

Marinite Hits LBJ's Farm Bill

James A. Marshall, president of the Marin County Farm Bureau, has criticized President Johnson's new farm bill as an extensioin of a program which has already proved unsuccessful.

Farmers are going to get little help from the administration's fresh deal, said Marshall, and it will cost the housewife more.

"It just doesn't make sense that the president would want a program that appears to work at odds with his anti-poverty program and is also opposed by those farmers it is supposed to help," Marshall added.

McCarthy Introduces Plan To Help TB Outpatients

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—A bill to provide state funds to underwrite outpatient clinics for tuberculosis patients was introduced in the Senate yesterday by State Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael.

The bill would provide 50 per cent state contribution for city or county TB outpatient clinics meeting state standards.

The measure was urged by the Marin County Health Department and Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn.

McCarthy also introduced a bill to prevent legislators squeezed out of their jobs by reapportionment from being immediately cut off the legislators' retirement system.

Under McCarthy's bill, legislators who do not run or who are beaten following reapportionment would continue in the legislators' retirement system for the balance of the terms for which they were elected, if they make contributions to the retirement system.

Hospital District Auction Nets $350

The Marin Hospital District netted about $350 yesterday in an auction of obsolete and surplus equipment at the warehouse at Marin General Hospital, according to controller Gordon Goodrich.

The major portion of the money, $275, came from sale of a dentist's chair and equipment, Goodrich reported.

Have you forgotten the grief you went through the last time you moved by yourself?

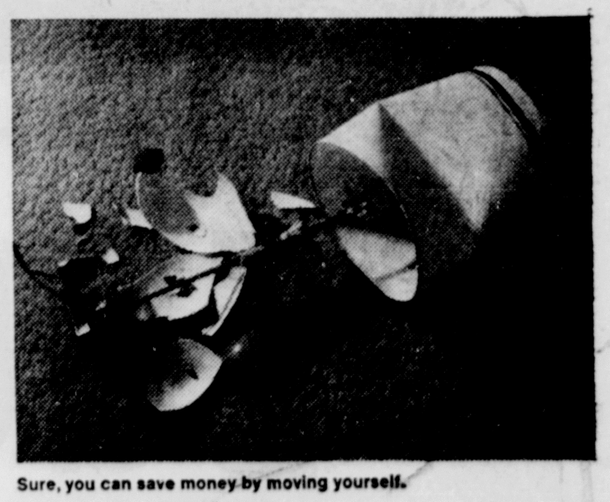

Remember the sore legs and back? The lost weekends and evenings? The grunts and groans? Remember saying, "Never again"?

Sure you do.

It's pretty hard to forget such a moving experience. And yet, after going through all that, a lot of people go right out and do the same thing all over again the next time they move. Why? Because it costs good, hard-earned money to get a qualified moving man.

Now, we won't kid you by saying that our Bekins moving men come free. They don't. But it might surprise you just how little they do cost. The reason our bills are so reasonable is because our men are able to get the job done quickly (keep in mind that you're charged by the hour for local moves). And the reason our men can do the job so quickly is because they get training. The most thorough training in the moving industry. Only those men who can meet our exacting training standards and performance tests ever get to be "certified" Bekins moving men. As a matter of fact, over half the men who apply for jobs with us can't live up to the demands of our tests. The men who do make it through really know the angles when it comes to moving. You will never see one of them standing around scratching his head trying to figure how to get an oversized chair through a narrow doorway. He knows how to angle it a little this way, turn it just so, and zip, it's through the door without a nick or a scratch or any wasted time.

So the next time you start to move, why don't you at least give us a call to see how much we'll charge to do the job?

You'll probably find that it won't cost you a bundle.

County's Hilarita Loan Appears To Be Legal

It appeared today that the proposed $240,000 loan by the County of Marin to the Marin County Housing Authority to prevent the sale of Hilarita housing in Tiburon will be legal.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said the county counsel's office spent a good part of yesterday in research to see whether the loan, informally endorsed by county supervisors Tuesday, would be legal.

Bruce said County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney told him it appeared the loan would have a legal basis. Earlier research cast some doubt on the legality.

Bruce said that he has not yet been able to decide where the funds should be drawn. On Tuesday when the matter came before the board, Bruce thought it possible to borrow the money from the hall of justice or the veterans memorial auditorium building fund. Later examination of the building schedules, however, showed removal of any funds would delay construction substantially, he said.

Injured Youth, 18, Stays In Hospital

Two of three 18-year-old San Anselmo boys injured in a one-car accident on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard yesterday remained in Marin General Hospital today.

The driver, Robert S. Brogioli of 324 The Alameda, was reported in satisfactory condition, suffering a concussion and scalp cuts. One of his passengers, Antonio Navas of 287 Butterfield Road, suffered multiple cuts and bruises, back injury and a concussion. He was reported in fair condition.

Tip Aids Partial Recovery Of Sausalito Art Theft Loot

Eleven stolen paintings were recovered by Sausalito police last night after an informant tipped detective Herbert Smith that they had been located in San Francisco.

The paintings, one oil and 10 water colors, were stolen March 27 from the locked Chevrolet station wagon of Melvin Blomquist, Sausalito art dealer, while it was parked on Princess Street near Bridgeway.

Blomquist, who resides at 900 Bridgeway, said 30 paintings were stolen in all. He valued them at about $1,500. Those recovered are valued at between $400 and $450, he said. Most valuable of those recovered is the oil, a reproduction of an Italian painting showing a woman, draped with a cloth, and several cupids. It is valued at $300.

Smith said he received the tip about 8 p.m. yesterday from a man who set up the rendezvous with another informant.

He went alone at 11 p.m. to the parking lot at the Golden Gate Bridge toll plaza where the second informant turned the 11 paintings over to him.

No arrest has been made, said Smith, but he is continuing his investigation.

The art thief pried open the back of the station wagon to steal the paintings.

Blomquist said all of the paintings are by Marin artists but he preferred not to disclose their names.

Non-Crash Mishap Injures Passenger

Mary E. Rushworth, 15, of 27 Redwood Drive, Ross, suffered a concussion when her head was banged against the interior of a car last midnight.

Driver Clyde J. Armstrong Jr., 19, of 121 Jewell Court, San Rafael, told highway patrolmen he swerved his car on the Corte Madera overpass to avoid an oncoming auto, causing Miss Rushworth to hit her head. She was in good condition today at Marin General Hospital.

The millions of auto accidents occurring in the United States cost Americans nearly $10 billion annually.

On the regular collection day, garbage and up to three cubic yards of rubbish will be picked up. Rubbish must be at curbside by 5 a.m. of the regular collection day for each householder.

Dixie School Trustees Vote Principal Hikes

Trustees of Dixie School District last night voted in favor of pay increases for the district's eight principals next fiscal year.

The action changed the salary range from the present $7,700 - $14,288 to $8,594 - $15,259.

Supt. Dennie B. Willis said that normal increases under the present range would have boosted next year's payroll for the district by $6,000. With the new range the payroll will go up $7,000. This does not include the proposal to hire one additional principal next year.

The Dixie School District board also:

1. Agreed to continue the teacher resource program whereby top teachers in the district, for an extra $2,000 a year, pursue research and special instruction, particularly during the summer.

2. Approved $72,901 in National Defense Education Act projects including foreign language, reading, mathematics, science and history for next school year. The district pays half and the federal government pays half the cost.

3. Granted leaves to Susan Jung, Virginia Mulholland and Marilyn Schultz, and accepted the resignation of Muriel E. Sparks.

4. Hired to teach next year Davis Moore, Joanne Donovan and Mrs. Dorothy Fourcade.

5. Set dedication of Miller Creek School for 1:30 p.m. April 25.

Burglars Enter Novato Firms

Burglars entered three places in Novato, but got no loot from two of them, Novato police reported yesterday.

Someone pried open the rear door to the Novato Garden Center at 1114 First Street, between 6 p.m. Tuesday and 9 a.m. yesterday, Mrs. Alyce W. Hendricks of 26 Hillswood Drive, Novato, reported to police. All that was missing was $3 in change, police said.

Door to the office of E. Pozzi Co. at 7552 Redwood Highway, was also pried, police reported. Nothing was taken there, Everett Pozzi of 1683 Novato Boulevard told officers.

The main office of the San Jose School District was entered by prying off a rear window. It was discovered by Manuel D. Brazil of 1201 Chase Street, Novato, according to police. Although drawers had been ransacked, apparently nothing was taken.

Tam Valley Sanitary Office Is Completed

The new office of the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District has been completed at 305 Bell Lane, Leonard Mitchell, district inspector, reported to the board Tuesday night.

Directors decided to hold their next meeting in the new structure and heard that the move from 309 Poplar Avenue, in the firehouse, will be made between now and May 11.

Blood Test Lawsuit Trial Opens In Municipal Court

Testimony began today in Marin Municipal Court in the trial of Jack Edson Herrmann's suit for $5,000 damages for the alleged unlawful taking of his blood in 1960 for an alcohol test in a drunken driving case.

A jury of nine women and three men was selected late yesterday. Herrmann charges that California Highway Patrolman Donald Greer and Sam Saporito, employee of Marin Medical Laboratories, took the blood sample at Marin General Hospital without his consent.

He alleges the act "unlawful search and seizure" and also involved battery upon his person.

Defendants are the State of California as employers of Greer; Marin Medical Laboratories, and the County of Marin.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas is hearing the case.

Medicine Overdose Hospitalizes Woman

Mrs. Susan Marie Ross of 255 Channing Way, Apt. 3, San Rafael, was in satisfactory condition today at Ross General Hospital, where she was taken after an overdose of medication at 9:30 p.m. Tuesday.

San Rafael police said they were called by her husband, John W. Ross.

Tachometer Stolen

Gary R. Saxton, 17, of 146 Knoll Road, San Anselmo, told San Rafael police that someone ripped a $30 tachometer from the instrument board while his car was parked at Country Club Bowl, 88 Vivian Way, San Rafael, about 9 p.m. yesterday.

Floods Worsen; LBJ Orders Aid

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Spreading waters of the flooding Mississippi River and its tributaries engulfed new areas in Minnesota and Wisconsin today, forcing hundreds of additional families to flee their homes.

The mighty Mississippi, racing toward an expected record crest of 27 feet at St. Paul, Minn., tomorrow, already is responsible for the evacuation of more than 31,000 persons in five flood-devastated Midwest states.

In Minnesota, where the flood presently is centered, more industrial plants and homes in low lying sections of St. Paul were engulfed as the water level continued to rise.

At least 12 deaths were blamed on the flood — 10 in Minnesota and 2 in Wisconsin.

Melting snow and ice pushed the Mississippi and its tributaries over the banks in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, North Dakota and Illinois.

The Weather Bureau warned the worst is still to come.

President Johnson, after viewing the stricken Midwest yesterday, proclaimed Indiana, Ohio and Michigan areas hit by a swarm of deadly tornadoes Sunday as major disaster areas.

The action means federal aid funds will be available to the areas.

Latest reports of the number killed in the tornadoes were 128 in Indiana, 54 in Ohio, 46 in Michigan, 7 in Illinois and 3 in Wisconsin, a total of 238.

The flooding already has caused damage estimated at $20 million in Minnesota alone.

In St. Paul and Minneapolis the floodwatch was intensified at the many bridges that span the Mississippi as ice chunks and debris roared down the river.

Officials dynamited the St. Paul Yacht Club building when it appeared the structure would be swept downstream, endangering other structures.

Governor's Fiscal Plans Threatened

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Unexpected trouble from his own party and renewed Republican opposition threatened Gov. Brown's fiscal plans today and increased the chance of a special legislative session.

The Democratic majority leader in the Assembly, Jerome R. Waldie of Antioch, had this surprise announcement: He will not vote for Brown's basic $4.03 billion budget because "it does not provide for the needs of the state."

Assembly Minority Leader Robert T. Monagan, R - Tracy, warned again the GOP could blockade action on the budget in an attempt to defeat withholding of state income taxes — a key part of tax plans advocated by Brown and the Assembly Democratic leadership.

Both agreed yesterday that a heavy workload, the battle over Senate reapportionment and a likely deadlock over taxes and the budget will plunge the legislature into its fourth unplanned special session in four years.

Mill Valley Student Wins Travel Award

Mikel Schwartzkopf, 24, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Mikel Schwartzkopf of 119 Highland Lane, Mill Valley, has been awarded a New York University alumni travel scholarship permitting her to travel to Holland this summer.

An art history student, Miss Schwartzkopf is a graduate of Tamalpais High and University of California at Los Angeles.

Santa Venetia Home Is Struck By Auto

Donna M. Arndt, 29, of 27 South Knoll Road, Mill Valley, was ticketed by highway patrolmen yesterday for not having a driver's license, after her car struck a house in Santa Venetia.

Patrolmen reported the car went off Vendola Drive, across 20 feet of sidewalk and lawn and struck the house of Fred Ullner at 206 La Brea Way. She told patrolmen she was attempting to make a U-turn at the La Brea - Vendola intersection at 3:30 p.m.

Fatal Fire In Ship

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon says a fire in an engine room of the aircraft carrier Ranger off South Viet Nam killed an enlisted man, fireman apprentice Chester Statun of Rayville, La.

More than 800 billion vehicle miles were traveled by automobile in 1963. This represents an increase of 4.5 per cent over the previous year.

Wilson Says Britain Supports Viet Stand

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson said today after a conference with President Johnson that Britain strongly supports the U.S. position in Viet Nam, but that no aid can be expected from London in the struggle against Communist guerrillas.

Wilson said Britain was unable to offer more than expressed support because it is so heavily committed in Malaysia and the Middle East.

Johnson and Wilson conferred for about an hour before a White House lunch in the prime minister's honor.

The luncheon was delayed more than 30 minutes while the two leaders completed their business talk. Johnson planned to leave in early afternoon for an Easter weekend in Texas.

The business talks were to continue during and after the luncheon. Wilson had at least three important money matters to talk over with Johnson.

Woman Hospitalized For Pills Overdose

Mrs. Hazel Oliver, 39, of 1516A San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, was treated at Marin General Hospital early today after swallowing 10 phenobarbital pills. She was committed by San Anselmo police to Napa State Hospital for observation.

Police were called at 12:20 a.m. by Dr. Paul Davidson who said he was worried about Mrs. Oliver. When police arrived, they found her awake but dazed, they reported. She was quickly taken to the hospital. She later admitted swallowing the pills, police said.

Miller Library Dedication Set

Dedication of the Clem Miller Memorial Library, an addition tot he Marin County Public Library, will be held May 1 at 3 p.m. in the library room of the Marin County Civic Center.

The ceremonies, sponsored by the Marin Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union, will include addresses by Richard M. Sims, District Court of Appeals judge, and County Supervisor Peter H. Behr, and music by the Marin Quartet, a string ensemble.

About 100 books, the nucleus of the new library, will be placed on the shelves during the ceremony. Members of the late congressman's family will attend the public dedication.

Shucks!

Here we were set to tell you all about the snappy new things Rambler has come up with, like the Marlin, our hot new sports-fastback, and optional reclining bucket seats and anti-fade disc brakes, and two kinds of floor shifts, manual or automatic, and our big choice of hustling new engines... then we got this flash news—

USAC

Use of Mobil Economy Run data approved and certified by the United States Auto Club

A Rambler American 440, with three-speed Flash-O-Matic transmission and peppy 125-hp Overhead Valve Six, has won its class again in the 1965 Mobil Economy Run.

And it won this victory over the roughest, toughest, longest, fastest course the Mobil people have come up with yet. Over 3,200 miles of sizzling desert, snow-capped mountains, gas-wasting city traffic, high-speed turnpikes.

But Rambler's got a lot more—the lowest-priced* U.S. sedans, wagons and convertible . . . high resale value, proved by Official Used Car Guides. See how smart and sporty the Economy King can be—at your Rambler dealer today.

American Motors—Dedicated to Excellence

Best economy of all cars, all classes, 4th straight year

Four Seeking Seats On West Marin Board

One incumbent is among four candidates for three seats on the West Marin School District board in Tuesday's election.

Robert E. Gallagher, a Point Reyes Station dairyman who has served on the board for four years, is the lone incumbent seeking re-election. Trustees Gus Kovats and Charles Reilley, whose terms also expire, did not seek re-election.

Other candidates are Mrs. Megan M. Mery of Inverness, George McCartney Johnston, Inverness Park real estate salesman, and Joseph F. Joyce of Point Reyes.

MRS. MEGAN MERY, wife of Michael L. Mery Jr., is a postal clerk at the Inverness Post Office. She has a son in the Peace Corps and a daughter at Pomona College. She was a founder of the former Inverness Improvement Assn., Scenic Roads Assn. and the Parents Club at Pomona College. She was a founder of the former Inverness Recreation Council.

A native of South Wales, Great Britain, Mrs. Mery attended elementary and high schools in Chico and Chico State College.

Mrs. Mery said she had no comment on Tomales High School District unification because "it is up to the state." Since then, the State Board of Education, has again rejected the proposal.

Regarding school taxes, she said. "The elementary tax rate is fine, but the high school should be higher in order to improve."

The other three candidates did not respond to a request for biographical information and their views on unification and school taxes.

Boyd Museum Gets 3-Year $7,500 Grant

Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum of San Rafael has been awarded a three-year grant of $7,500 by the San Francisco Foundation.

The grant will be used to hire a full time director at the museum, according to Mrs. Clara Evans, acting director. The museum will receive $3,750 this year and two more payments totaling $3,750.

The Boyd Museum applied for the grant last year and received approval by the foundation in October, said Mrs. Evans. Specific payments were authorized this week.

"We hope this is the first step in a new growth period for us," said Mrs. Evans. "From this grant, we should be able to develop a wider range of programs for the public and Marin County schools."

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

La Boutique Featuring Gifts; Berkeley Electronics Opens

A new store at 42 Main Street, Tiburon is La Boutique, featuring interesting and unusual American and European gifts. These include ceramic chess sets (handcrafted by a local Marin artist), fire drum stoves in bright colors, silver, copper, brass and the like.

The shop is owned by Mrs. Nancy B. Frank of the Reedlands of Tiburon. She was formerly manager of Monkey Business, Inc. in San Francisco for 10 years, and also has a background of advertising and public relations from Washington, D.C.

OPENED at 935 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield is Berkeley Custom Electronics. Lee Hoyt Aber of San Rafael is the owner. Aber has recently been with Klein's TV, both in San Anselmo and Sausalito. Previously he was chief engineer for Berkeley Custom Electronics in the E ast Bay, whence comes the name of his store.

Aber works closely with the firm in special high fidelity and professional-type sound components. He operates his repair service in Kentfield but takes customers to Berkeley main salesrooms across the bay if need be, to show off the elaborate sound systems.

DARLENE'S CANDY BOX is moving from 9 Poplar Avenue, Ross to 328 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo. It should be ready to open by Monday at the new location—too late for Easter, but then it doesn't sell Easter eggs anyway.

Stragnola

V. JAMES STRAGNOLA of San Rafael, real estate broker, has joined the staff at William Timmer's realty office. He has been in this field of business since the end of World War II — with William Nock, Michael Scotto and on his own. He'll head the developing of apartment house sites and commercial and industrial properties for Timmer.

HERBERT G. DRAKE of Belvedere, vice president of N. W. Ayer and Son, Inc., has been appointed to the new post of Pacific Coast manager, succeeding Harry Graybill, who is retiring.

PROMOTIONS at Wells Fargo Bank's San Francisco office have moved up Wilfred E. Utzinger of San Anselmo to trust officer and Knud Laurland of Lucas Valley to assistant trust officer. Utzinger joined the bank in 1954 and is in the agency department. Laurland, in the probate and estate department and an assistant secretary, has been with Wells Fargo since 1960.

GEORGE A. ANTIPA of Greenbrae, assistant vice president and manager of Crocker Citizens National Bank's Geary and 20th Avenue office in San Francisco, was honored last week in observance of his 40th year in banking. He began his career at Anglo California Trust Co., a Crocker Citizens predecessor.

ARTHUR E. PIEROTTI of Kentfield, salesman at Scripture Oldsmobile, San Rafael, has returned from Palm Springs where he was feted among other top ranking Oldsmobile retail salesmen in the west.

STEVE LIGGETT BEAUTY SUPPLIES, San Rafael will celebrate its third anniversary May 3 at a champagne reception and dinner dance for professional beauticians at Dominic's. In association with Clairol, hair stylist Salavtore Megna will be presented — also a parade of models. Reservations are needed.

Auto Firm's Profits Up Firm Reports

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—Studebaker Corp. first quarter operating profits were up 74 per cent over the same period a year ago, Byers A. Burlingame, president, reports.

Operating income for the first quarter of 1965 was $2,013,363, equal to 14 cents a share on sales of $49,072,936. In addition, the corporation had a non-recurring profit of $3,027,326 in February, resulting in total net income for the quarter of $5,040,689, equal to 35 cents a share.

These results compare with operating net income for the same period in 1964 of $1,156,180, equal to eight cents a share on sales of $67,322,765.

Gets Orders

SOUTH MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—Bucyrus-Erie Co. has announced the receipt of $12.5 million in orders for excavating equipment for construction, mining, and chemical companies in recent weeks. B - E said the orders consisted of four big walking draglines and a huge power shovel.

President Elected

NEW YORK (UPI)—Howe Sound Co. has announced the election of John J. Burke as president and chief executive officer. Burke succeeds William M. Weaver Jr., who asked to be relieved of the post he held since 1958. Weaver was elected chairman.

Marin Businessmen's Tax Returns Probed

Here is a note for the tax-weary citizen who seeks to make today's celebration of Income Tax Day complete:

To help with the festivities, the San Francisco office of the Internal Revenue Service says it has begun a survey to see if Marin businessmen have been filing returns correctly and on time in the last two years.

Called a "compliance survey," it is being carried out by revenue officers from the San Rafael and San Francisco offices, according to district director Joseph M. Cullen.

"Revenue officers will normally ask each business visited to produce copies of its returns and its cancelled checks for each return filed for the years 1963 and 1964," the IRS announcement said.

"Mr. Cullen requests the cooperation of the Marin County business community in assisting the revenue officers, especially by keeping the above returns on hand at their place of business."

Ranch Is Sold For $1.9 Million

PATTERSON (UPI) — The 2,000-acre El Solyo Ranch in Northern Stanislaus County has been sold for $1.9 million.

William R. Lewis, Jr., president of the Lewis Land and Investment Co. of Patterson, said yesterday he had acquired the stock of the El Solyo Ranch Corp. from Albert J. Watson, Hillsborough.

The ranch was started in 1907 by Roy Pike and at that time, its 4,860 acres made it one of the largest ranches in San Joaquin Valley.

Watson purchased the property in 1947.

Chrysler Passenger Car Sales Increase

DETROIT — Retail sales of Chrysler Corp. passenger cars in the first 10 day sales period of April were 37,562 units, a daily rate of 4,174 units.

The daily rate and the volume of sales were 26 per cent over last year for the same period when 29,749 units were retailed for a daily rate of 3,306 units. The first 10 day sales period in April this year was the best for the period since 1955.

United California Seeking Branch

The state banking department in Sacramento has announced the receipt of an application from United California Bank, Los Angeles, to establish a branch in Marin County, in the general vicinity of Highway 101 and Lucas Valley Road.

Leslie J. Hendy in the premises department at United California's San Francisco headquarters said the branch is projected for the west side of the highway, south of Lucas Valley Road.

Wins Another Stay

BOSTON (UPI) — Northeast Airlines has won another stay from the death sentence handed down on its Florida routes by the Civil Aeronautics Board. A U.S. court of appeals has ruled the CAB must give Northeast a full dress hearing on its appeal.

Losses Are Reduced After Profit Taking

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market had a partial recovery in late trading today and finished in a mixture of plus and minus signs.

The list was lower for much of the session as profits were taken in advance of the Easter weekend. Late in the day, however, a number of losers came back vigorously and others cut their losses.

Down about 2 points at the end were Du Pont and U.S. Smelting. Fractional losses were shown by General Motors, U.S. Steel and Radio Corp.

But Chrysler rallied briskly with a 2-point gain while Lorillard, Caterpillar and Reynolds Tobacco advanced a point or better.

Down about a point were Standard Oil (New Jersey), Union Carbide and Southern California Edison.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.7 million shares compared with 6.56 million yesterday.

Here was the picture toward the close:

Losses of leading stocks went from fractions to around 2 points.

The higher-priced issues registered the 2-point losses — Du Pont, IBM and Xerox.

Losses exceeding a point were shown by such issues as Comsat, Motorola, Skelly Oil, U.S. Smelting, Canadian Pacific and Texas Gulf Sulphur.

After three straight days of record highs in market averages and six straight days of advance, the market seemed ripe for a pause, analysts said. The long Easter weekend was ahead. The market will be closed Good Friday.

General Motors matched its historic high of 108½ at the opening but then slid a full point. Also down a full point were such pivotal issues as Standard Oil (New Jersey), Eastman Kodak and Jones & Laughlin.

A respectable number of leading issues bucked the downtrend. Up about a point were such stocks as Chrysler, Caterpillar, Kennecott, Johns-Manville and Reynolds Tobacco.

American Consumer Industries rose 2, Amerada nearly 2, Eastern Gas & Fuel about 2½, Johnson & Johnson rose well over a point.

Colorado Fuel & Iron looked like the volume leader and was a fractional gainer. General Dynamics also was briskly traded but unchanged.

Once again, big blocks crossed the ticker tape — General Refractories, off ½ at 17⅜ on 32,800 shares; Peabody Coal, off ¼ at 40¼ on 34,100; Royal Dutch, unchanged at 40¼ on 19,000; and Continental Baking, off ¾ at 56¼ on 16,800.

Prices turned mixed on the American Stock Exchange after an early rise. Trading was heavy.

Dividend Increase

ST. LOUIS—The board of directors of the May Department Stores Co. has voted to increase the quarterly dividend rate on the common stock to a new rate of 37½ cents per share, or $1.50 per year, from the previous rate of 30 cents per share, or $1.20 per year.

STOCK EXCHANGE SHUT TOMORROW

The New York Stock Exchange will be closed tomorrow for Good Friday.

Trading wil resume on Monday.

PIPELINE PLANNED FOR MARINCELLO

Marin Municipal Water District Calls For Long-Range Standards On All Mains

Even though Marincello may be developed at first without annexation to Marin Municipal Water District, the water lines in the southern Marin development should meet district standards, District Mgr. William R. Seeger said yesterday.

Seeger told the water district board he would press for such standards before the county planning commission and board of supervisors.

The water district manager said that eventually the local water supply will not suffice to meet Marincello's needs, and the district will be asked to annex the area.

If the water lines are substandard then, he said, the political pressure may be too great for the district to refuse to serve. Therefore, the problem should be avoided now.

"It may seem like dirty pool to them now," Seeger said, "but it's best in the long run."

Seeger said the same problem would be posed by the planned waterworks district for Nicasio. He said residents in the area agreed they would eventually have to seek water from the municipal district, rather than depending on wells nearby.

He suggested the Nicasio area could annex to the Marin Municipal District now, even though the initial water supply would come from wells, until development warrants building a pipeline from the San Geronimo treatment plant.

He noted the district board has been invited to a meeting on the subject May 3 with the North Marin County Water District board and the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission.

Marin Municipal Water District Board Also:

1. Met in closed session with attorney Harold F. Riede to discuss further steps in the condemnation suit by the state against the district on its San Rafael corporation yard, taken for highway widening.

2. Named directors William C. Herup, George W. Thierbach and Dr. L. L. Stanley to a committee to examine proposals for a change in the employee retirement program. Seeger said he would recommend that retirement be allowed at age 60.

3. Awarded a $3,900 contract to Joseph R. Fillipo, San Rafael, for construction of a pump house for Marin Professional Center. His was the lowest of four bids.

4. Awarded a contract for $3,813 to Ronald Antonioli, San Rafael, lowest of three bidders, for construction of a pump house on Manderley Road.

5. Purchased 270 bronze service saddles from Groninger and Co., Oakland, for $2,307.16, and 380 mallable service saddles from Dan-Dee Products, Oakland, for $869.34, and an offset press from American Type Foundary Co. for $3,332.70

6. Approved a pipeline extension agreement for $92,510 for Eichler Homes' Harbor Point development of the first 86 lots on the point.

Pilgrims In Jerusalem

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI) — Thousands of Christians thronged both the Israeli and Jordanian sectors of Jerusalem today in summer-like weather to celebrate Maundy Thursday.

Pilgrimages converged on the old city in the Israel sector. Catholic priests and laymen also made the traditional pilgrimage up the winding path on Mount Zion to the place held to be the room of the Last Supper. They entered the room singing portions of the gospel related to the Last Supper.

Later pontifical mass was celebrated at the Benedictine Dormition Basilica, led by American Abbot Leo Rudloff.

Theft From Auto

James W. Carlton, 220 H Street, San Rafael, reported to Corte Madera police today his car was broken into early today while it was parked at the Edgewater Inn parking lot, near Highway 101. He said a woman's coat, shoes and slacks were removed.

NUTTY HEADPIECE — Jo Lynn Duncan of Manti, Utah, plans to have the liveliest Easter bonnet of them all for the Easter Parade Sunday. That is, if the little grey squirrel named Skitter doesn't decide to scamper. (UPI Telephoto)

Today Is Deadline On Tax Returns

WASHINGTON (AP)—Today is the deadline for filing federal income tax returns.

They must be postmarked by midnight tonight, or there will be a penalty.

Although only the return must be in the mail today, there is a saving in enclosing any money you owe. Late payments are subject to interest charges.

On Visit To U.S.

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — President Mohammed Ayub Khan will arrive in New York April 25 on a six-day state visit to the United States at the invitation of President Johnson, an official announcement said today.

New Bill Would Trim State Resource Group

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Legislation to overhaul the State Resources Agency and save up to $1 million a year was introduced today.

Assemblyman Milton Marks, R-San Francisco, introduced the measures after the changes were recommended by the Commission on California State Government Organization and Economy, the "Little Hoover Commission."

In general, the bills would consolidate and eliminate many of the agencies boards and commissions.

Among the big changes proposed in Marks' package of 14 bills was abolition of the Wildlife Conservation Board. Its duties would be turned over to the Fish and Game Commission and the Fish and Game Department. Another bill would end the present necessity of the legislature renewing the commission's regulatory powers over fish and wildlife every two years.

Boys Suffocate In Earth Cave

MILPITAS (AP) — Two young brothers suffocated yesterday night as they were trapped and covered by falling earth after they had crawled into a small cave.

They were Bryan Burton, 9, and Steven, 8.

A third brother, Gordon Burton, 12, was rescued by Milpitas firemen today and was reported in good condition at a San Jose hospital.

Police Stop Boy, Girl In Stolen Car

A 17-year-old San Rafael boy, with a 16-year-old Novato girl as his passenger, were stopped by South San Francisco police last night driving a car which had been reported missing from San Anselmo.

San Anselmo police received a call from Mrs. Eleanor Knapp, 1203 San Anselmo Avenue, that her car had been taken from its parking place near her home during the day. Minutes later, South San Francisco police phoned to check on the car.

The driver and passenger were picked up by Marin County probation officers.

The city of St. Helena takes its name from that of the mountain. In 1841, Princess Helena de Gagarin, niece of the czar of Russia, and bride of Count Alexander Rotcheff, governor-general of Siberia, arrived at Ft. Ross, ascended the mountain and christened it for her patron saint, Helen, mother of Constantine, the first Christian Roman emperor.

Giants' Shaw Throws Spitter, Phils Charge

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) Willie Mays thinks Mickey Mantle will get his home runs—and Gene Mauch is positive that Bob Shaw was spitballing.

The wondrous Willie, who didn't hit a home run here all last season, put the San Francisco Giants off and running last night with a prodigious blast far over the left field roof off Jim Bunning, the first breakthrough in a Giants 5-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

It was the Giants' first win of the season, the first time they've beaten Bunning after four losses last year, and for the time being it broke a private home run derby between Mays and Mantle.

WILLIE'S SECOND

It was the second time this year for Willie, leaving him the only Giant to homer thus far in the still young 1965 campaign, and it was the 455th of his career. Until the second inning blast, Willie and Mantle were tied at 454, seventh on the all-time list. Willie now is the leader among active players.

But Willie grinned a Mays grin and gave his expert opinion—"Mantle will get his all right. It might be tomorrow or the next day, but he'll get them."

Willie said he hit "a fast ball, I think" and this was confirmed by Bunning who said wryly, "a high, fast one."

Willie set the pace for Gaylord Perry to come up with a fine bit of pitching until he tired in the seventh and Shaw came on with two Phils on base. Shaw went the rest of the way pitching hitless ball, with what Mauch complained was a real wet pitch.

Perry, the only Giant pitcher to go nine innings in the spring, fanned seven while allowing two hits in the first five innings. Wes Covington homered to cut the Giants' lead to 3-2 in the sixth and when a single and an error put two Phils on in the seventh, Shaw came on to dampen the threat.

New Dodger Ace Fills Koufax' Shoes

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Claude Osteen went eight years without a victory and five years with a losing record in the National League.

Now, in less than two hours, he's removed both blights.

His achievement, too, came at a time when the Los Angeles Dodgers needed an antidote for a serious arm ache they have developed this spring.

Osteen, making his first appearance for the Dodgers since his acquisition from Washington last winter, pitched a two-hitter in Los Angeles' 3-1 triumph over Pittsburgh last night.

When the Dodgers obtained him in the seven-player deal that sent Frank Howard to the Senators, they hoped Osteen would be able to fill in for Johnny Podres if that southpaw failed to come back from a sore-armed 1964.

But now it appears Osteen may have to take over the left-handed load from Sandy Koufax and his arthritic elbow.

Osteen's return to the National League ends a four-year absence. In between he spent three seasons and part of a fourth compiling a losing record with Washington.

The 25-year-old lefty began his major league career with Cincinnati of the N.L. back in 1957. In 26 games with the Reds from then through 1961, he failed to pick up a victory. His only decision was a loss in 1960.

His first victory was a sterling performance. Through 8 2-3 innings he allowed only one hit — Jim Pagliaroni's fifth-inning double off center fielder Dick Smith's glove.

After that hit, Osteen retired 13 consecutive Pirates before Bob Bailey connected for his second homer of the season with two out in the ninth.

In other N.L. games, San Francisco downed Philadelphia 5-2, Chicago defeated St. Louis 7-3 and Houston nipped the New York Mets 7-6 in 11 innings.

Ron Fairly and Maury Wills led the Dodger attack. Fairly socked a two-run homer in the fifth inning while Wills stole three bases, giving him five in two games. His third steal put him on third from where he scored on Smith's bunt.

Ron Santo, with home runs in the fourth and eighth, and George Altman, with one in the seventh, helped keep the world champion Cardinals winless this season. The Cubs' Dick Ellsworth scattered 10 hits for the victory.

Houston erupted for four runs in the 11th inning on two errors, three walks and two wild pitches by Larry Bearnarth, Ron Brand's bunt single and Al Spangler's steal of home.

The Mets, who had tied the game 3-3 on Joe Christopher's homer in the ninth, struck back for three runs in their half of the 11th, but that's all they could get.

Novatan Captures Junior Golf Title

Ray Leach of Novato High School is the Marin County junior golf champion.

He swept that title yesterday by winning the first county-wide junior championship at Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club, shooting rounds of 72 and 74 for a 146 total. Par at Peacock Gap is 71.

The tourney started what is planned to be an annual thing at the San Rafael course and drew 63 entrants from Marin County high schools. Ages ran from 14 through 18.

San Rafael boys took home the second and third place honors, Don Hawken with a 73-76—149, and Mike Kelly with 79-76—155. Kelly also won low net with rounds of 68-68 for a 136 total, scores based on the Calloway system. Second place low net went to Bill Londeree, 71-71—142.

The top three winners are among the best golfers in the Marin Athletic League which started action last week. This tourney served to keep the linksters in shape for the remainder of the prep schedule which was halted this week because of Easter vacation throughout county schools.

Matson Spins Disc To New Record

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Texas A&M's Randy Matson sailed the discus past the national collegiate record yesterday, but Baylor bested the Aggies in a triangular track meet.

Matson set a world shot put record and heaved the discus 190 feet, 7 inches only last week.

This time he hurled the disc beyond the marked area for the event, over the broad jump pit into the middle of the cinder track — 201 feet, 5½ inches from where he stood.

The National Collegiate Athletic Association record of 193 feet, 4 inches was set last year by Bill Neville of Occidental.

Matson tossed the shot better than 67 feet for the third consecutive week but had to settle for 67 feet 1-4 inches in competition. He had a warmup toss of 67 feet 6 inches, just 5¼ inches short of his record.

Baylor won nine of the 16 events and amassed 83 points while Texas A&M tallied 58 points and Texas Tech, the third team, compiled 27 points.

MONEY CALLS; VENTURI TO ENTER VEGAS GOLF

The lure of a "cinch" $1,100 prize is too much for ailing golfer Ken Venturi.

The National Open champion, who arrived in Rochester, Minn., last night for extensive tests at Mayo Clinic to determine the cause of and possible cure for mysterious numbness in his right hand, said he had notified the Tournament of Champions committee in Las Vegas that he will be among the 27 starters in the April 29-May 2 tournament.

Although his ailment has limited his golfing effectiveness this year and threatens his career, Venturi said he hoped to be in good shape for the Vegas tournament in which last place is worth $1,100.

A Family Project By The Alou Boys

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—While home run master Willie Mays was being applauded for his second homer in two days, the San Francisco Giants' Alou brothers were busy making a family project of getting hits.

Mays was given much credit yesterday for sinking Jim Bunning with a two-run homer in the third inning which helped the Giants win their first game, 5-2, over the Phillies.

But when the game's box score was figured out, Matty and Jesus Alou had batting averages for the game that were more impressive.

The two brothers collected half of the Giants' 14 hits. In their collective 10 trips to the plate they had seven hits.

Leftfielder Matty hit 3 for 5 and batted in one run. Rightfielder Jesus managed 4 for 5 and also pushed a run across.

Matty beat out a hit toward first in the eighth but was doubled off first when Mays flied out. Jesus also got caught short trying to steal second in the ninth.

Both Alous were expected in the lineup today when the Giants try for the second win in a second night game against the Phillies. Right-hander Bob Bolin was scheduled to take the mound for the Giants.

'Windy' Billy Casper Is Co-Favored In Houston Classic Golf Tourney

HOUSTON (AP) — Australian Bruce Devlin, defending champion Mike Souchak and Cailfornia's Billy Casper were tabbed the golfers to beat for the $1 000 top money in the $55,000-added Houston Classic which got under way today.

Devlin jumped into the favorite's circle with a competitive course record eight-under-par 63 during a final practice round over the 7,244-yard, par 71 Sharpstown course where 144 pros and amateurs started the 72-hole tournament.

Devlin won $500 for his 63 which was low among the pros in a pro-am tournament yesterday — the final practice before the tournament. The slender Australian had eight birdies and 10 pars.

Bob Rosburg of Portland, Ore., shot a 67 and won second in individual play worth $425.

Souchak, who won the 1964 tournament with a six-under-par 278, picked Casper because "he is such a good wind player." Strong and tricky winds are common at the Sharpstown club.

Several of the big name golfers will not play in this year's Classic. Those missing include Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Ken Venturi, Tommy Aaron and Tony Lema.

However, the 19th Classic is assured of being a success as advance ticket sales passed the $120,000 mark last week.

Four of the top money winners for 1965 are in the tournament. They are Doug Sanders, second; Casper, third; Bob Charles, fourth, and Devlin, seventh.

In addition to Souchak, this year's field includes five other former Classic champions. They are Jack Burke, Marty Fugol, Jay Hebert, Bobby Nichols and Bob Charles.

Souchak won the classic with a 278 last year and Morgan Baker, Sharpstown professional, believes it will take a 274 to win top money this year.

Seven of the previous classics have been won with a 277 score and Bill Collins won an 18-hole playoff from Palmer after both had finished with that score in 1960.

Prep Athletic Problem—PARENTS

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Undue pressure from parents is becoming a serious problem among high school coaches, the fired athletic director at an Augusta high school said today.

Coach Jack Reynolds of Richmond Academy said he was dismissed in a dispute between himself, the school administrators and several parents of boys on the football team.

"Too many parents are being allowed to interfere in the high school athletic programs — not only here but throughout the country," Reynolds said. "This is detrimental to the schools, the administrators, the coaches and the children."

Reynolds, 34, said his troubles began last fall when he disciplined three players for violating a practice rule.

"We have a rule that no player talks during practice unless he is addressed by a coach," Reynolds said. "These boys started their own conversation, and I dropped them from one game. They played the rest of the season.

"I think this is a good rule, because you can't talk and pay attention, and you can't play football if you don't pay attention."

Reynolds, who played center at the University of Tennessee, compiled a five-year record of 13 victories, five losses and a tie at Richmond Academy.

"The parents in this case are wrong in making the teacher appear wrong in the eyes of the children. It is unfair to the boys, for they will have to face similar decisions of their own in later life," Reynolds said.

The athletic and music committee of the Richmond County Board of Education recommended that Reynolds be discharged, backing a recommendation by Principal W. L. Maden.

Phillies Assign Boozer To Minors

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies have optioned pitcher John Boozer on 24-hour recall to their Arkansas farm club in the Pacific Coast League, the team announced yesterday.

Boozer, a 25-year-old right-hander, was 8-1 at Arkansas and had a 3-4 won-lost record in 22 games with Philadelphia last year.

One Fault With Masters Tourney

O.K. now, the Masters is a great golf tournament. Right? The course is first rate, the pin locations devilish, the gallery-control excellent. The sporting goods companies pant for a Masters winner, Ed Sullivan chases the dogs off-stage one night for a look at the winner and all-in-all, it's golf's finest hour.

Or is it?

I think I detect one wee fault with the Masters I hadn't thought about before. It's like a top-hole Broadway show. I mean, the proscenium arch is breathtaking, the book and lyrics all-time, the leading players, the theater's best. But the supporting cast is shipped in from a road company of the "Hot Mikoda."

Jack Nicklaus' 72 holes of golf may have been, as Bobby Jones said they were, "The greatest tournament performance in all of golf's history." But, as they say around the race track, who did he beat?

I'll tell you who: Chen Ching Po. Jack McGowan, Tomo Ishii, Richard Davies, Kel Nagle and Dean Beman, to name a few. He also beat Dr. Ed Updegraff, Herman Keiser, Henry Picard, Gene Sarazen, if you want to know. Also John Hopkins, the amateur, not the hospital.

I BEGAN to think it extraordinary to reflect that, at the Masters, Palmer (you remember Arnold, surely?) and Nicklaus seemed to be alternating in this thing—followed usually by Gary Player with an occasional look-in by Tony Lema. Amazing how form will tell, you say to yourself.

But, again, is it?

The Masters is an invitational. You win it, you get in it forever. You win the Formosa Open, you get an invitation. There's enough conditions for more amateurs to get in it than you can find in some states.

THEY HAD 26 foreign players in it last year. Now, there are some fine players in that bunch, but some of them come from countries where you can win the "National championship if you break 80. The club champ at Mill Valley could probably give the national champ of Japan a lively run for his money—and maybe two strokes a side, for all I know.

The result is, the Masters is a great tournament on a great course—for about a dozen players.

THIS IS about 40 less than a player has to worry about at an average tournament. Some shooters in there are as old as the tournament itself.

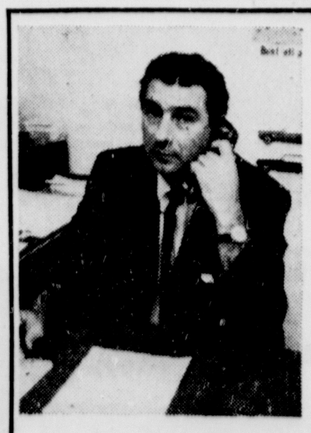

The formfulness of the Masters becomes less mystical as you consider this. They haven't chased the ribbon clerks out of this high stakes game. They have let them in. They have chased out the well-heeled high-rollers. From the best of motives, to be sure. But let's not be so dazzled by the lead tenors so as not to notice the chorus would make anybody sound great by comparison.

YOU GO back in the standings and you spot a trend that occurs too often to be coincidental: Last year, Palmer won it and Nicklaus was second. The year before, Nicklaus won it, and Lema was second. The year before that Palmer won it and Player was second. The year before that, Player won it and Palmer was second. And so on. And on. In past years, Ben Hogan and Sam Snead traded it off five out of six years. Five out of six years! A mathematical repitition like that bears examining. It doesn't happen in any other tournament.

I REVERE the Masters as much as any golfophile living, and have the clippings to prove it. But a field barnacled with Chen Ching Pos, the champion of the Amazon River delta, and the guy who holds the Sicilian course record is not blue ribbon. It's like the British Open, only easier. In the British Open, a tournament-tough American has only about a half-dozen top competitors to worry about, but he has the golf course to take its place. Usually he is not familiar with that. Nicklaus and Palmer know the Augusta National links like their bank accounts. And there are a lot of guys in the Masters who, let's be frank about it, couldn't qualify for the Phoenix Open if they gave them five rounds to do it.

I WAS as thrilled with Old

Giant Castoff Turns Yankee Killer

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cardinal or Cardenal. Either spells all kinds of trouble for the New York Yankees.

The Yankees, who had trouble with 25 Cardinals from St. Louis last October, ran into considerable difficulty with one Cardenal from Los Angeles last night as they lost to the Angels 4-3.

The new Cardenal pestering the Yankees is Jose Domec Cardenal, a 21-year-old outfielder who weighed in at 160 pounds before the game and with four hits — a homer, double and two singles — during the game.

Stealing the splotlight from the expected duel between Dean Chance, the Angel's Cy Young Award winner, and ace left-hander Whitey Ford of the Yankees, Cardenal connected for his first major league homer as the leadoff hitter and later started the Angels winning rally.

By that time both Chance and Ford had left.

Chance lasted a little longer, going six innings before he was lifted for a pinch hitter after allowing five hits and two runs while walking an unusually high five men. Ford, meanwhile, was touched for eight hits and two runs in 5 1-3 innings.

The two runs were the first the Yankees had scored off Chance in 25 innings.

While Chance's string of success against the Yankees was broken, Baltimore handed the Chicago White Sox their first loss in some 6 ½ months. The White Sox wont heir last seven games of the 1964 season and won their 1965 opener before Milt Pappas shut them out 6-0 on six hits.

There was only one other game played in the American League, Washington whipping Boston 6-4 on Don Blasingame's key triple. The Cleveland at Kansas City and Detroit at Minnesota games were rained out.

Cardenal, a right-handed swinger with one hit in 29 previous major league games going nto the season, collected two hits in the Angels' opener Tuesday and doubled his production again with a 4-for-5 performance against the Yankees. He was obtained from the San Francisco Giants in a winter deal.

With the Angels trailing 3-2 in the seventh, Cardenal singled off Hal Reniff to get the winning rally started. Another single, by Willie Smith, and Jim Fregosi's two-run double did the rest of the damage.

The two Yankee runs off Chance were provided by Tom following a fifth inning walk to Ford.

Pappas, who missed the opening day assignment because of a sore elbow, showed no effects as he kept the White Sox from putting more than one man on base in any inning.

He also scored the only run he needed by doubling in the third inning against Joe Horlen and coming around on a single by Paul Blair and Luis Aparicio's doubleplay grounder.

Blasingame's two-run triple, over the head of center fielder Lennie Green, capped a three-run outburst in the seventh inning that won it for the Senators against ace Red Sox reliever Dick Radatz. Willie Kirkland's double and a single by Jim King tied it before Blasingame slammed his game-winner.

Two homers were hit, one each by the starting pitchers — Boston's Earl Wilson and Washington's Buster Narum.

Nick's victory as the next guy. But let's get a Masters' field where, when he comes up to No. 15 leading, he doesn't just have to say "How's Palmer and Player doing?" but, rather, what he has to say in two dozen other tournaments, namely, "How's Kermit Zarley, Butch Baird, Rod Funseth, Gardner Dickinson, and 20 or 30 other of those one-putts doing?"

They already got a tournament for those old folks—the Seniors. And while it makes for good will to clutter up that field with a lot of banana-republic champs, it doesn't make for good golf. Unless they want to change that title to the Augusta "Pasters"—or "Lasters."

Mays Moves Ahead Of Mantle In HR Derby

also was the description of third base coach George Myatt as Shaw struck out Johnny Callison, Covington and Dick Stuart, all long ball hitters.

"Callison fouled off a high spitter and struck out on a low spitter," Mauch fumed. "The rule is against it, and when it's violated flagrantly..." he trailed off.

"He quit after I complained," Mauch added.

Shaw, who struck out the side in a relief role in Pittsburgh the day before, merely beamed contentedly.

The Phils were in the game after Covington's homer, but the Giants reached reliever Ray Culp in the seventh for two runs on a walk to Mays and three straight singles. Callison cut down a run at the plate to help choke it off.

"Culp pitched well," Mauch said, "but you can't give the Giants or any other team three extra bases and two extra outs and beat them."

One of the hits slid by first baseman Stuart, fresh from Boston, who found boo birds here when they're 31,923 strong, create a chorus. Dick also missed a double play relay from the outfield, but happily Ruben Amaro grabbed the ball for the two-out play.

TROPHY FOR SAN RAFAEL RUGGERS

Ken Russell (right), president of the Northern California Rugby union, presents Robert H. Baxter Memorial Trophy to John English, captain of Peacock Gap Rugby Team at last Saturday's Peacock-Long Beach game in San Rafael. Baxter trophy was presented to the San Rafael team for maintaining "esprit de corps" among Northern California ruggers and helping to keep the sport active. The trophy has been established in memory of a San Francisco business executive and rugby enthusiast who was killed in a plane crash earlier this year.

PRICE'S 650 SERIES LEADS PIN SCORING

Gerald Price's 650 series, featuring a pair of 233 games and a 184, copped the spotlight in league action at San Rafael's Country Club Bowl during the past week. He rolled it in the Civic Center League.

Another top series was Butch Bowden's 607 in the 900 Classic League.

High games of the week were Virg Dodson's 253 in the 900 Classic and Willie Joseph's 248 in the 825 Scratch.

Vivian Gray, the Marin women's champ, and Penny Conti each fired a high 536 series to lead the gals—Viv in the Sleepers League and Penny in the Weekenders circuit. Wilma McKilligan's 214 in the Morning Glories League and Madelyn Osborn's 213 in the Spares League were high games for the women.

Steve DeLine's 609 series and games of 207 and 206 and Chris Lee's 606 series and 225 solo were features among the juniors.

CELTIC-76ER SHOWDOWN

Entire Season Wrapped In One Game; Wilt Is 'Key

By C.C. MCGILLICUDDY

BOSTON (AP) — The entire season will be wrapped up in one game when the defending champion Boston Celtics meet the upset-minded Philadelphia 76ers in the seventh and final game of the National Basketball Association Eastern Division playoffs tonight at Boston Garden.

The winner will gain a berth in the championship playoffs against the Los Angeles Lakers who won the Western Division title, beating Baltimore four games to two.

Boston has been installed as an eight-point favorite to win on its home court, having beaten the 76ers 10 times at Boston, including three playoff games. The odds-makers have called the shot each time, picking the home team in the other six games.

Coach Dolph Schayes says his Philadelphia team will pull the upset because he's expecting a big effort from Wilt Chamberlain.

"I'm confident Wilt will come up with the big effort," he said. "Wilt can do anything he wants to do. He has a chance to make up six years of frustration at the hands of the Celtics.

"And a lot of the guys on our team — men like Larry Costello, Johnny Kerr, Hal Greer and Al Bianchi, plus myself — had our moments of frustration at the hands of the Celtics while we were in Syracuse."

Boston forward Tom Sanders believes the whole series depends on him and his efforts at stopping cornerman Chet Walker.

Walker has been the key to the 76er victories so far, averaging 25 points a game in the three victories at Philadelphia but only 13 points in the three losses at Boston.

"Walker is killing me," said Sanders, who rates as one of the best defensive cornermen in the NBA due to his performances against such stars as Bob Pettit, Elgin Baylor and Jerry Lucas.

"I've got to do something about it. And I guess I have just one more try," Sanders said.

Walker scored six baskets in the first period of Tuesday's game at Philadelphia. "I was responsible for him early," Satch said, "and he got five of those baskets on me."

Boston has been involved in six series that went down to the wire while winning eight straight division crowns and seven NBA titles. They won all six, including a series against the Syracuse team that included the nucleus of this current Philadelphia entry.

GOLDEN GATE FIELDS

Jockey Joe Baze Hot As Blaze—Wins Three More

ALBANY (AP) — Jockey Joe Baze, who ignored his doctor's advice 11 years ago to give up riding, has booted home another three winners at Golden Gate Fields.

Baze's triple triumph yesterday followed by only two days his state record-equaling performance in riding six winners on the same track.

He won yesterday's fourth race with Ruler Tolson at $10.40, the fifth with Skyepoona at $16 and the seventh with River Star at $7.80.

Baze, a 31-year-old jockey from Spokane, Wash., was advised to give up riding after a spill. Only six other jockeys have won six races on major California racing tracks.

Emphil's Lodge won the featured California Derby Ball Handicap at Golden Gate Fields yesterday, edging Incan Chief for the $5,000 purse by a half-length. The winner paid $7.20.

Fish Stray, Search Is On

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

For the salmon buffs, the search is on. So far the searchers have failed in their objective — the relocation of the schools of storm-scattered salmon from the Point Reyes sector to the Light Ship and the Farallone Islands. Oh, a few reports came in of fair success: On Monday the Wilma H boated six salmon to 12 pounds near the Light Ship, the Chinook net-net nine to 15 pounds out near the Farallones, and other boats reported some token results, but at noon on Tuesday the pickings were slim. I listened to the various party boats bewailing the small return for efforts expended. One or two fish to the boat. However, the search will continue until some skipper broadcasts the happy tidings that the fish have been relocated. We all know there are many small, and a few large schools of salmon in our section of the briny, so take heart, it won't be long now.

LIKE THE picture of salmon trolling, the striper striving has been a case of many being called but few being chosen, yet quite a few fish have been taken. Like salmon, the bass were apparently scattered by the stormy weather. Joe Nerviani, of Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia, reported only 9 bass for 13 boats on Monday, but they were of good size—to top of 28 pounds. Best bet, according to Joe, has been in about 15 feet of water between the Pump House and S.P. Buoy. "Still a few flounders coming in, but not too many," Joe told me.

Carl Benentt of the Rodeo Marina reported the action out of his place on the Contra Costa side of the San Pablo Bay. For example: On Sunday Chet Anderson and Ron Burows from San Leandro took limits from 6 to 18 pounds off Buoy 5. Also lucky was a trio from Hayward —Frank Ching, Nish Yamamoto and George Elders. These boys boated five stripers to 14 pounds, also near Buoy 5.

Bennett estimated, though, that the average was probably not better than a fish and a fraction per rod.

Rich Urbais of the Sausalito Bait and Tackle reported the boat Blue Horizon having a successful trip Sunday after deep sea rockfish near the North Island. Fifteen fishermen brought back 10 limits of rockfish—but, oddly, no lings.

The Fruitvale Bait Shop in Oakland reported oodles of perch, and a few stripers taken recently, mostly on Blue Rebels and Creek Chub 734 plugs. One nice bass, taken from the Fruitvale Bridge area, weighed in at 17 pounds.

So—, while salmon, perch, and striper fishing is not hot—hardly warm—there are fish to be taken. If the winds don't take over as they did last week, a lot of fish will be taken by a lot of fishermen. Here's hoping you are one of the lot.

1965 Version Of Donner Party; Fresh Snow For Easter Skiers

The story of the Donner Party is familiar to every California school child, and all kinds of books have been written about the hardships of the expedition (there's even Ma Donner's Cookbook), but we think that this kind of experience is in the past, and with modern knowledge, it couldn't happen here.

Don't you believe it! A little band of unsuspecting souls found out the hard way last Saturday night that modern warm clothes and boots may help, but that slogging through soft snow two-feet deep over a sink-through crust hasn't changed a bit since gold rush days.

It took us almost two hours to trek from the Alpineers' Lodge to Sugar Bowl Lodge. Usually it's about a 20-minute walk, with a packed trail, but the new snow made the difference.

WE HAD been to the Alpineers party, where we met Tony Chausse of Fairfax, who showed his ski movies.

Nancie Maus from Sugar Bowl showed us the way to the party via the snow cat track, but our mistake was in taking the advice of a pretty Alpineer who volunteered to guide us back to Sugar Bowl via a short cut. It may have been shorter in distance, but not in time, especially at midnight.

Moral: Never go to a party without your skiis; you may have to walk home.

WITH ALL this new snow, skiing is wonderful for the school vacation during Easter week. John and Bonnie Kerby-Miller are staying at the Marin Ski Club lodge all this week, with a day or so at Heavenly Valley.

Judy Shilinger was hostess to a group of Girl Scouts from Senior Troop 1132 who were guests at the lodge this week. They were JoHann Haseltine of Mill Valley, Kathy Leggett of Kentfield, Pam Boardway and Sharon Ward of Fairfax. Also in the party were Mrs. Arthur Wallenta and Mrs. Gene Bryant of San Anselmo, and her children, Sue and Tom.

Busiest member of the group was Judy's son, Hans, age 1½ years, who tries to ski like his Daddy, Danil.

EASTER WEEK will be climaxed by races at Alpine Meadows and Sugar Bowl. At Alpine, winners of the weekly Sunday Slaloms will compete in the finals on Easter Sunday, to win the Pfeiffer House Trophy, now in its fourth season. The races are strictly for amateurs, and are run in three classes: Children up to 12 years of age, men, and women.

Sugar Bowl will have junior races, sanctioned by the Far West Ski Assn. On Saturday, classes 1 through 3 will run the downhill and giant slalom. Sunday will be the Disney Race for classes 4 and 5.

Rod-Gun Ladies Auxiliary News

The Ladies Auxiliary of Marin Rod and Gun Club will hold its spring rummage sale April 23 and 24 at 380 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo. Proceeds will go to the Conservation and Scholarship funds.

Emmabell Herak, scholarship chairman, has sent announcements to eight Marin County high schools offering the club's $200 annual scholarship to a youth planning a careed in forestry. Winner will be selected at the next meeting of the club, April 27.

Prior to the meeting, Dr. Charles Nagel and Ernest White of the Marin County Schools office will lecture and show slides of the outdoor science and conservation education program.

Ruth Smith, fishing chairman, has set May 4 and 11 as trout fishing days at Lake Lagunitas.

Mmes. May, Sears Share Golf Lead

Mesdames William May and Arthur Sears each fired an 86 to share low gross honors Tuesday at the Indian Valley Women's Golf Club's "Guest Day" golf tournament.

Class A—Mrs. Sears, 86-17—69; Mrs. Thomas Keigwin, (Mill Valley), 89-17—72; Mrs. William Bevans, 89-16—73.

Class B — Mrs. Lynn Sumpter, 93-21—72; Mrs. Ken Roberts, 93-20—73; Mrs. Roger Williams, 99-20—79; Mrs. E. N. Dawson (Marin), 99-20—79.

Class C—Mrs. B. M. Brown, 99-24—75; Mrs. F. Kern (Mill Valley), 103-23—80; Mrs. Clay Lilleston and Mrs. F. E. Greenland (Mill Valley), each 104-23—81.

YOUTH BASEBALL

Li'l Guys Play In San Anselmo

San Anselmo's popular Midget League Baseball Program for boys in the 7½ to 10 age bracket will launch its eighth year of operation next week, Director Frank Quinn has announced.

Signups for the league have been accepted since April 1 and the first function of the season will be a clinic next Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 3:30 p.m. each day, at Wade Thomas School, Yolansdale School and Memorial Park, Quinn said. "All boys will be expected to attend the clinic," the director added.

Following the clinic, boys will be assigned to practice for two days per week; boys new in the league will be assigned to teams on May 26-27, uniforms will be issued on June 14-15 and league games will start on June 17 and continue through July 31.

Quinn said 202 boys participated in the league last season and as many are expected for the 1965 campaign. "Each boy will play in each game," he noted.

SAN RAFAEL'S Little League will open on Saturday, April 24, with a parade through downtown San Rafael starting at 9:30 a.m. followed by an All-Star game between the American and National leagues at Davidson Junior High School field. The regular season schedule will begin on Monday, April 26.

American League mothers are sponsoring a dance on Friday, April 23, 9 p.m.-1 a.m. at Carpenter's Hall, 647 Linardo Street. Mrs. Yvonne Sasse and Mrs. Helen Selmi are in charge of ticket reservations.

SAUSALITO'S Little League opening ceremonies are slated Sunday, April 25, with a parade followed by practice games.

Kent Skov Wins Golf Tournament

Driving Case Trial Is Set Sixth Time

A much-delayed drunken driving case has been rescheduled for trial for the sixth time in Marin Municipal Court.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson, who set the jury trial of Frank Coffey, 39, Richmond, for 9:30 a.m. on April 29, conceded that the case—which started in March of last year—has become "sort of a step-child of the court."

But he added he couldn't set it as quickly as today, as requested by the district attorney's office, because he wasn't willing to send the sheriff's office out to pull in 50 people" for a jury panel.

The case was first scheduled for court trial on June 5, 1964, but was continued by Judge Leonard A. Thomas for an emergency meeting on other matters by municipal judges. On Nov. 16 is was continued from its Nov. 29 setting for jury trial at request of defense attorney, Harold R. Hayes, for a court trial, instead.

On Dec. 16 Coffey asked for a jury trial, after all.

Legal technicalities postponed an April 1 trial this year. Tuesday, the defendant failed to appear, and although trial could legally have proceeded without him, Judge Peter Allen Smith granted a continuance until yesterday for resetting.

Coffey was arrested by California Highway Patrol on Highway 101.

Driver Fined

Grover Edward Grady, 42, of 213 North Almenar Drive, Greenbrae, was sentenced to five days in county jail and fined $276 Tuesday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving He was arrested by San Anselmo police last Dec. 28.

PUPPETS ON STAGE

Nan Susac of San Francisco, formerly of Marin, will present a puppet show featuring clowns, fur-hatted Cossacks, bears and princesses on April 25 when the Terra Linda Cooperative Nursery School stages its benefit for the school building fund. Performances will be held at 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m., at the Terra Linda Community Center. The school, according to chairman Mrs. John Gillen, is operated non-profit by the San Rafael City School District and presently rents space in Terra Linda Community Center. The puppet variety show is one of two annual fund raising projects.

Millionaires Help Keep Florida Green

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — "Go knows who those people are – but we don't," the heir of one o Miami's founders sniffed auto cratically at the current crop o winter colonists who now stay t play until May in this tropica playground.

"Society? Well, we've got a lot of rich people trying to out spend each other, if that's what you mean."

YET IF SOCIETY is prominent American families, this town has it. Firestone, Du Pont, Deering, McCormick, Bell, Palmer, Vanderbilt, Astor — their children are here.

If society consists of founding families, this town has that, too.

Miami Beach is celebrating the half-century mark since its first millionaire arrived. In 1915 sportsman Carl Fisher, who built the Indianapolis Speedway, pumped this island paradise out of the bay and beat the drum to draw the well-heeled from the cold North. Miami proper is only 20 years older.

If society has become celebrity worship with a stack of press notices good or bad making up for whatever the person lacks in background, as social historian Cleveland Amory says it has, then Miami has become this kind of society, too.

THE JET SET, horsey set, yacht crowd, actors, artists, writers, big industrialists, widows, ex-wives — people with nothing in common but money—mingle briefly at the big social functions then fall again into their proper niches.

They keep Florida green. So rich indeed is the gold lode here that every kind of national fund-raising organization taps it with charity benefit balls, much to the annoyence of local charities. Hence at least one of these tax deductible full-dress bashes at from $25 to $100 a head is on the Miami socialite's calendar each week, along with four or five private parties.

NANCY GREENE, wife of Robert Z. Greene, the vending machine millionaire, a petite Dresden doll with a mass of silky black hair piled high on her head, undoubtedly is the champion sponsor of charity balls.

The season is so short, Mrs. Green says, that there aren't enough open dates on the private club calendars to accommodate all the members who want to throw parties and so two or three hosts share the same one. Because even the rich have fewer servants and smaller quarters today, the five clubs — Bath, Surf, La Gorce, Indian Creek and Westview — are doing a booming "instant party" business.

The party—preferably a costume party — with a theme is the thing today. At the Surf Club's Saturday night galas, the pace changes from an extravagant night under the big top with elephants and cotton candy to romantic Arabian nights with magic lanterns, camels, sheiks and harems. A set designer works full time, year around in the club basement keeping ahead with props for the spectacular parties dreamed up by the club's silver-haired director, Alfred Barton, 63.

ONE THING MIAMI Society is not is a happy man-hunting ground. The unattached man here is spoiled by an overabundance of rich and lonely widows and rich and lonely ex-wives constantly vying for his escort services during the busy party season.

The only real swingers in town after 11:30 most nights are the tourists, not the fun-seekers on the party circuit. While the affluent winter colonists do not have to punch time clocks, they do get up early for a busy daytime schedule of golf and tennis, the races, poolside buffet luncheons, and the beauty parlors.

Apart from those who frequent the charity balls is a patch of wealth largely centered

THE SUBURBAN SCENE

Party And Travel Highlights

By MOLLY MARIN

Telling her friends about the extraordinary Portland Junior Symphony is Mrs. Robert L. Schultz, who with her husband has just returned to Mill Valley from a motor trip up the coast to Oregon and Seattle. A leader in Marin music circles, Mrs. Schultz is especially interested in music for young people.

THIS REMARKABLE orchestra, she says, admits young people up to the age of 21 and has quite a large budget. The Schultzes attended a rehearsal of the group and were surprised to learn the young musicians are so enthusiastic they are willing to rehearse on Saturday nights.

While they were in Seattle, the Schultzes had lunch with Susan Pemberton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Pemberton of Mill Valley, who is a student there.

ON SUNDAY the Corinthian Yacht Club will have its traditional Easter brunch from 11 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. Following the brunch, members of the Yacht Club's Women's Auxiliary have planned entertainment for all age groups. A combo will play twist and rock and roll music, and a ballet solo will be performed by Joy Nieda of Tiburon, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Isamu Nieda.

Following the musical entertainment, there will be an Easter egg hunt on the upper deck terrace of the club, where eggs will be hidden for the younger children.

Chairman of the Easter entertainment is Mrs. Joseph Madrigali of Ross. Assisting her will be the Mesdames John De Witt of San Rafael, Isamu Nieda of Tiburon, Peter Sutter of Belvedere and Tom Maxwell of San Rafael. Teen-age members of the club will be helpers.

MRS. RICHARD SIMS and Mrs. Ralph Noah entertained at brunch on Sunday at Peacock Gap Country Club in honor of Maureen Elizabeth McGraw who will wed James Niswonger on May 1. The occasion was a miscellaneous shower to fete the bride-to-be. Maureen was also honored recently with a shower luncheon at the home of Mrs. MacBoyle Lewis of Belvedere.

Mrs. James Bagwell and Sharon Betts were co-hostesses at a bridal shower honoring

Linda will become the bride of Allen Schafer on June 26 at the Our Lady of Loretto Church in Novato.

Guests attending the shower were Mrs. Carl Williams, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Alfred Schafer, mother of the prospective bridegroom and Mrs. Victor Johnson, Mrs. John Carter, Mrs. B. C. Betts and Judy Picchi of Novato and Mrs. Virgil Sparks, Mrs. Betty McClure and Mrs. Phillip Ryan of Napa.

TWO COUPLES from South Africa were dinner guests at the San Anselmo home Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Neumeier. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Frederick Kingsley of Pretoria and Mr. and Mrs. Frederik Willem Buitendag of Germiston. Kingsley and Buitendag are department managers for their respective city councils, in charge of non-European affairs.

The couples are spending three months in the United States under a State Department leader exchange program. Their Marin visit was arranged by the International Hospitality Center of San Francisco.

DR. AND MRS. WILLIAM B. RYDER of Belvedere are the new grandparents of William Brian Bliss. His parents, William and Bonnie Bliss of Sunnyvale, have been living in Kodiak, Alaska, and returned to California for their son's birth. William is also the grandson of Dr. and Mrs. Percival M. Bliss of San Jose and the great grandson of Mrs. William P. Jennings of Los Gatos, formerly of San Francisco and Sonoma.

SHIRLEY NEWHALL of Greenbrae, was recently initiated into Delta Gamma national sorority on the Willamette University campus in Salem, Ore. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Newhall of Greenbrae.

Zonta Club To Install New Officers

Mrs. Americo Oberto will be installed as new president of the Zonta Club of Marin at 8 o'clock tonight at the San Rafael home of Dr. Gwen Campion.

Other new officers are Mesdames Harold Taft, vice president; Warren Nute, recording secretary; Lila M. Haberman, treasurer, and Miss Sigrun Johnson, corresponding secretary.

On the board of directors will be Mesdames Richard Cuthbert, Ethel Cobb-Souza, Paul R. Ciampi and William Berry. Mrs. A. C. Anderson and Miss Mary Fidler will be installing officers.

Co-hostess will be Mrs. Louis A. Carlson.

'JAMAICAN RUM'

Perfect for the hot summer day is Sir James of California's offering "Jamaican Rum." The fabric is flax, the shape is new. A gently fitted A-line trimmed with its own self-color lace and a vivid accent on contrast color.

Straw-McLean Rite Held In Belvedere

Mary Deane McLean of Mill Valley became the bride of Robert Leonard Straw of Corte Madera on April 10 at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Belvedere.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 2 p.m. by Dr. Llewelyn White.

When the bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. McLean, was given in marriage by her father, she was wearing a white mohair suit and veil.

Matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. John Martin Fleischman of San Rafael, who wore a short shocking pink dress. Best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turco Jr. of Corte Madera, was John Martin Fleischman.

The bride's 7-year-old brother Jock McLean was ring bearer. Ushers were Lance Lowry of San Rafael and Thomas Shepley of Oceanside.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, and the young couple left afterward for a honeymoon at Highland Inn, Carmel. They are living in Mill Valley.

Mary and Robert are both graduates of Redwood High School. She took a business course at Heald's College in San Francisco and is employed as a medical secretary in Kentfield. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. McLean of Belvedere.

The bridegroom served in the U.S. Navy four years and is employed with the Mid Construction Co. of Mill Valley. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turco of Petaluma, and the brother of Tina Turco of Corte Madera.

The cutest age of all, the 2 to 4's--known as the toddlers—going in all directions (mostly in a harness of course)... little boys just starting to try things in easy care cotton long pant suits, just 4.29, or a brass buttoned, clan plaid blazer, with navy blue shorts, at 12.98... and little sister has a gingham bunny to match her own adorable Easter dress, at 9.98, more to choose from on the second level.

Miami Society Not Happy Ground For Man-Hunting

in Coconut Grove area who live unostentatiously but luxuriously, and who play hard, but without much publicity.

WHO NEEDS IT?" asks Kitty Cudahy, a deep-dimpled, sun-bronzed tennis enthusiast who is nearly always barefoot. Not she of the meat packing family, nor the Deering-Daniels of farm implement millions, nor Willis du Pont of the chemical empire, nor the Richard Bertrams.

Wealthy to start with, Bertram amassed another fortune at the end of the war turning out yachts with assembly-line speed, eventually becoming among the nation's largest pleasure and racing boat brokers.

IN A STARKLY MODERN high-rise apartment building three girlhood friends, a Jewess, a Catholic and a Baptist, met recently and reminisced about the old Miami their families founded.

Another was Elizabeth Loomis, daughter of J.E. Loomis, the second mayor. The third was Claire Weintraub, daughter of Isidor Cohen, who owned a dry-goods store and became the president of Miami's first organization of merchants.

WHEN THEY WERE babies along with the city at the turn of the century, the winter season began with the grand opening of the Royal Palm Hotel on Jan. 1 and stopped abruptly after the Washington's birthday ball.

"We were a small Southern community," recalls Eleanor Riley Piro whose marriage to Joseph Piro was the social event of the first decade. "Civic leadership and background meant so much."

"In those days," said Elizabeth Loomis, "society was determined by breeding, graciousness and money. Today I'm afraid that all one needs is money."

Marin Women

THE BETTER HALF — By Bob Barnes

"That man-of-the-world expression and slight swagger were pretty good but you sure blew it when you couldn't get your stomach pulled in."

Marinite To Be Installed As Hygienists' President

Mrs. Graham D. Luce of San Anselmo will be installed president of the Northern California State Dental Hygienists Assn., at its annual business and scientific sessions meeting in San Francisco, April 25 and 26.

MRS. GRAHAM LUCE

Mrs. Luce attended Sir Francis Drake High School, the University of California and received her bachelor of science degree from the School of Dentistry, University of California Medical Center, San Francisco. A trustee and past president of Redwood Component (Marin-Sonoma Counties), Mrs. Luce was alternate delegate from Northern California to the American Dental Hygienists Assn. annual meeting in 1964. She lives in San Anselmo with her husband and two children, Graham Jr., and Kimberly.

Other Redwood Component members attending the meeting will be Mesdames Emmett DeDeyn, president, San Anselmo; A. Y. Watson, vice president, San Rafael; Ronald O. Plambeck, secretary-treasurer, San Anselmo; Lois Hawk, San Rafael; and Miss Anne Zufall, Greenbrae.

Marin Weavers May Register

Marinites interested in the conference of Northern California Handweavers to be held May 1 and 2 in Fresno may register with Mrs. Betty Holcombe, 500 Center Boulevard, San Anselmo and Mrs. John R. Minton, 411 Wellesley Avenue, Mill Valley.

The conference will feature weaving exhibits including Marin's Tamalpais Weavers and the Gravander Spinners. Demonstrations of weaving are arranged by Mrs. Ramona Power of Walnut Creek, mother of Neil Power, superintendent of Samuel P. Taylor Park here. Mr. Power is a member of Tamalpais Weavers Group.

A 'Baker's Dozen'

Men's handkerchiefs come packed in a "baker's dozen." You pay for 12 and get 1 "on the house." Advice—if any of you fellows have the unconscious habit of constantly adjusting the knot of your tie . . . cut it out. Nothing will soil both tie and collar faster than that.

Mrs. Carlton Banigan Named Outdoor Art Club President

Mrs. Carlton Banigan, who has been elected president of the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley for the 1965-66 term, has been a member of the club for more than 20 years.

She is presently on the board of directors and rental chairman for this woman's club founded 63 years ago for purposes of conservation, preservation of the natural beauties of Mill Valley and surrounding country, protection of wild birds and game and engaging in civic, social and literary work.

She has previously served as business secretary, recording secretary, parliamentarian and press chairman and historian.

MRS. CARLTON BANIGAN

MRS. BANIGAN has also been very active in the Mill Valley Community Church Club, having served as president, vice president, treasurer and secretaries. She was a president of the now defunct Mill Valley Forum and former co-chairman of the Mill Valley Branch of the American Assn. of University Women.

She and her husband, a retired banker, have lived in Marin since 1928. They have two children, Mrs. Arthur Carl Sheeter of Colma and Bruce Hamil Banigan of Santa Ana, and four grandchildren.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Helen Banigan is a graduate of Wellesley College, and before her marriage headed the physical education department of Winston Salem College in North Carolina.

Her special interests are travel, knitting, sewing and reading.

Other new officers of the club will be Mesdames Adren Aitken, first vice president; A. L. Bjorklund Jr., second vice president; George P. Gustafson, recording secretary; Robert Earl, corresponding secretary; Albert Miller, business secretary; and L. M. Wahlquist, treasurer.

NEW DIRECTORS will be Mesdames Frank Hamilton, house; Kenneth Bauder, rentals; Robert Andresen, membership; Alan Shearer, historian and publicity; John Burnham, grounds; Gerhard Becker, community service; Alan Ewen, ways and means; Frank Connelly, director at large; Vincent White, finance; Alan Kappelman, civics and conservations; Mills Calahan, cultural arts; and Michael Leonis and Walter Long, advisory board.

They will be installed at the closing day luncheon on May 27.

SANDRA TRUAX

Sandra Truax To Be Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Chester T. Truax of San Anselmo have announced the engagement of their daughter Sandra Lee to Douglas James Roix.

The bride-elect was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is a senior at San Jose State College, majoring in psychology.

Douglas, son of Mrs. Mary Thorsen and William Roix, was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is in the Air Force, stationed at Lincoln, Neb.

Xi Kappas Elect Mrs. L. J. Benelli

MRS. LEO BENELLI

Mrs. Leo J. Benelli of Loma Verde has been elected president of Xi Kappa Psi Chapter, the Exemplar Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

Mrs. Benelli has served as social chairman and corresponding secretary of the local chapter. However, she has held every office in Beta Sigma Phi since her affiliation with the organization 15 years ago in Cleveland, Ohio.

Jane attended schools in Pennsylvania and she and her husband, a machinist in San Francisco, have three children, Allen, 12, Mary Jane, 10, and Liebel, 5 years of age. They have lived in Marin County two years.

The new president said the Beta Sigma Phi sorority was created for young women in search of cultural and social activity. "It gives its members an intimate touch with many lives and many minds, a precious guard against narrowed friendships and an enriching, intensifying, inspiration experience in the appreciation and enjoyment of liberal arts," she said.

The sorority will participate in the Western Weekend event as their ways and means project.

Officers to serve with Mrs. Benelli are Mesdames Gavin Pelling, vice president; Eugene Lounder, recording secretary; Wilbur Pearson, corresponding secretary, and Keith McGuire, treasurer.

Scientists Say Fruits Might Be Packaged In Film

Mrs. Virginia Porter, Marin County home adviser, announces that it may not be too long before shoppers will be buying processed fruits and vegetables in film bags—instead of tin cans.

Dr. D. K. Salunke and his coworkers at Utah State University already have bagged peaches, apricots, cherries, and beans with considerable success. Although there is still some problems in maintaining quality and storage life, the scientists are optimistic about canning in film.

They say the poly bags are much less expensive than tin cans and packing is easy. For consumers this could mean a sizable reduction in the cost of processed items.

Greenbrae Boardwalk Group To Hold Sale

The Greenbrae Boardwalk Improvement Assn. will hold its third annual Rummage Sale on May 1 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Greenbrae Rod and Gun Clubhouse.

May 2 will be half price day from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Cake and coffee will be on sale.

Memorial Day Celebration Is Planned

Plans are being formulated by the Marin County Veterans and Auxiliaries Memorial Committee for all ladies auxiliaries to participate in the Memorial Day services to be held on May 30, at 2 p.m.

The committee wishes to have all veteran, fraternal, service clubs and other organizations take part in this program. The names of organizations wishing to participate should be given to Henry A. Gareis, 121 Union St., San Rafael or to Mrs. William J. Wider, 14 Glenwood Dr., San Rafael.

Honor guards and color bearers are asked to march. Flags will be posted on the Court House steps. Floral offerings will be placed at the base of the monument.

High Rise Socks

Slipper socks of all types, many with synthetic leather soles, are gaining in acceptance nationwide. The high rise socks for business and dress-up wear are replacing many of the too, too short socks that added up to a poorly groomed look.

Don Clausen To Address El Marinero

The Redwood Empire Congressional Representative, Don H. Clausen will speak at the noon luncheon of El Marinero Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution on Monday at the Marinwood Community Center.

On the subject of conservation, Mr. Clausen has long been interested and active in programs for the development of the Redwood Empire.

In Congress he helped secure rapid acquisition and development of facilities at Point Reyes Seashore, where he also assisted in halting timber cutting; worked to transfer Forts Baker, Barry and Cronkite to State Beach and Park use; aided in establishing Department of Interior Oceanographic Research Center at Tiburon Naval Net Depot; secured funds to initiate planning on Corte Madera Creek Flood control project to eliminate flooding in Ross, San Anselmo and Kentfield; also flood control protection in Richardson Bay streams and Tamalpais Valley.

Hostesses for the luncheon will be Mesdames Christian J. Matthew, Richard E. Mittelstaedt, Helen Noel, Hilton J. Simon, Walter M. Wyman and Gustave K. Zantow.

REP. DON CLAUSEN

Ice Cream Flops

In its 44-year history, a major ice cream manufacturer has made or laboratory-tested more than 3,000 flavor combinations of ice cream on a stick. Flavors that succeeded include baked alaska, strawberry short cake, and chocolate candy bars coated with ice cream. The biggest flop in flavors are chile con carne. Also rejected: kumquat, licorice and prune flavors.

Marin Branch Gourmet Groups Plan Two Elaborate Dinners

The international flavor is being continued by three Gourmet Sections of the Marin Branch, American Assn. of University Women with two elaborate dinners planned.

On April 24 the Gourmet I Section will have an Indian dinner at the Tiburon Peninsula Club, with Mesdames Robert I. Christensen and Raymond Miller as chairmen. Special guests will be the Rev. and Mrs. Richard D. Beaumont of the Church of the Redeemer, who lived in India for several years. Mrs. Beaumont has helped the group plan the menu.

The India National Tourist Office is providing posters and other material for decorations including sculpture and art objects. Arrangements were made by Mesdames Ronald Ehrke and P. G. Cochrane.

At the beginning of this month Gourmet II heard a talk by Mrs. Mari Holmes, describing customs and foods in her homeland of Japan in preparation for the Japanese dinner to be held on May 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. George in San Rafael. Mrs. Faradg Farr is chairman.

For both these parties the food preparation will be done by the members.

Dream Of New Life Is Realized As Woman Becomes U.S. Citizen

After her mother died, Maria Jacqueline Silva had a home to run and a family to feed in her native mid-Atlantic Azores; she was just 10 years old at the time.

An only daughter, she spent the next 15 years applying the feminine touch to the household, looking after her father and four older brothers. In those days the thought of starting a new life elsewhere was a distant dream.

Now America is her home—and 30-year-old Maria is one of 10 Marinites who received United States citizenship during March in U.S. District Court in San Francisco.

She lives at 103 Filbert Avenue, Sausalito, the home of her aunt, Mrs. Olivia Silva, who played an important part in enabling Maria to emigrate five years ago. The aunt acted as sponsor and paid the air fare.

Maria was finally able to make the move when her father and three of her brothers decided to start afresh in Toronto, Canada. Working as a laundry press operator in Sausalito, she has spent a lot of her spare time attending night school and learning English. She is now taking driving lessons.

Also Americans now in their own right are brothers Allan Aulis, 13, and Henri Victor Mackey, 12, adopted Finnish children of Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Mackey of 726 Marin Drive, Mill Valley.

The couple adopted the children nine years ago in Holland with the aid of a Finnish envoy at The Hague, and spent four years in Saudi-Arabia before returning to America. Mackey is employed by Standard Oil Co., San Francisco.

Other new citizens are:

Guiseppe Antonio Pata, 116 Du Bois Street, San Rafael; Maureen O'Mullin Allen, 54 Forbes Avenue, San Anselmo; Mrs. Kaethe Clark, 5 Barksdale Court, Hamilton Air Force Base; Mrs. Julia White, 61 Blacklog Road, Kentfield; Mrs. Alexandra Stangl, 157 Sycamore Avenue, Mill Valley;

Mrs. Catherine Lee, 2450 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael; Donald James Wiffin, 355 Scenic Road, Fairfax, and Dzintars Kozlowskis, 50 North Street, Sausalito.

Ascherman Hearing Scheduled May 10

Hearing on application of Dr. Stanford W. Ascherman to force Marin Hospital District to reveal secret proceedings has been scheduled in Marin Superior Court for 2 p.m. May 10.

Judge Thomas F. Keating continued under advisement a demurrer by the district that the doctor's petition for $10,000 damages be stricken as illegal. Dr. Ascherman alleges the board met illegally behind closed doors on Feb. 23 to discuss his application for staff privileges.

Larkspur Studies Transit Routing

Rapid transit, if it ever comes to Larkspur, should stay east of Highway 101, a citizens committee working on the Larkspur general plan decided Tuesday night.

The agreement allowed plans to go ahead for eventual use of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad right of way for a new street to bypass Magnolia Avenue.

Two Win Art Awards At Baptist Seminary

The winning poster and brochure were designed by Reginald R. Jones Jr. of San Rafael and Carl M. Halvarson, director of public relations at the seminary in Strawberry.

Tam Unification Is Endorsed

Total unification for the Tamalpais High School District was endorsed by an 8-2 vote Tuesday night of directors of the Homestead Valley Improvement Club.

The board also voted its support of Glen E. Robinson of Homestead Valley as its candidate for the Marin County Board of Education.

A study group is being organized by valley professionals in the planning field to prepare a master plan for the valley. "We're disturbed by what appears to be hit and miss planning and zoning throughout the county," said president Bernard M. Weinstein.

Romeo, Juliet Search Slated

Climax to a year's search by the Marin Shakespeare Festival for a Romeo and Juliet will be on Saturday when auditions are slated at the Marin Art and Garden Center Amphitheater starting at 10 a.m.

Among judges will be Dion Chesse, who is directing the play; Elizabeth Fuller, associate director of the Festival Theater, San Anselmo, and Mrs. E. W. Egenberger, Marin Shakespeare Festival president.

Performances this season, scheduled from July 14 to Sept. 4, include "Romeo and Juliet," "As You Like It" and "Henry IV, Part 1."

Negro Employment Program Starts

The State Department of Employment in San Rafael has begun a program to promote job opportunities in Marin County for graduates of predominantly Negro colleges.

The department will refer Marin employers to college seniors from other areas for job interviews and placement, according to Edwin W. Ayer, employment service manager.

WORK EXPERIENCE — Jim Mainini, 15-year-old Tamalpais High School work experience volunteer, and carpenter George Bolles consult plans as they work on conversion of former restaurant building into youth center for Mill Valley. The job is being done by volunteers such as young Mainini and one paid workman: Bolles.

Youth Learns While Working On Center

By BRUCE COLEMAN

"Not too many kids are around now but there will be when we get everything finished."

Fifteen-year-old Jim Mainini of Alto made this comment yesterday while working in the transformation of an old restaurant on Project 17 into the Mill Valley Community and Youth Center.

Mainini was putting in a pipeline with Jack Young, 19, College of Marin student, to bring water to the center from the Optimist Club baseball field, a distance of 420 feet.

Mainini works from 3 to 5 p.m. daily on the building under the Tamalpais High School work experience program. He receives credit at school for the work but, as a volunteer, no pay.

"When I graduate, if I don't become an architect I would like to become a carpenter," said the student. "Mr. (George) Bolles, the only paid man on the job, is teaching me a lot about building and carpentry."

The youth is a bit cool on pipes. "I wouldn't want to become a pipe layer. It's backbreaking, bending down and packing pipes." Mainini said he is in charge of the pipe work and hopes to get them "hooked up" and across the creek to the center by Saturday.

Then he will start building a windbreak which he designed for the barbecue pit.

The plans, which Mainini showed proudly, picture a wood shelter 20 by 18 feet and with a shingle pitch roof. "I designed two sets, the first set the architect, Mr. (Robert M.) Tanaka, said was no good. The second set he approved."

Mainini, who lives at 57 Shell Road, said he also has helped Bolles work on building a 30-foot long truss to be installed in the building.

An outspoken admirer of carpenter Bolles and his skills, Mainini said: "He works five days a week for which he is paid and then he works weekends as a volunteer. He can do anything."

Asked if there were any humorous or exciting experiences, Mainini replied that he and teenager Dave Kiep were taking down some siding and run into a black widow spider. But that last Saturday he and Wiley Washington, with another boy, were helping tear out the old bar when they found $2 in change in the bar.

"I plan to work through until it is finished," said Mainini.

Juvenile Offenses Increase

Sheriff's juvenile inspector Harvey E. Teague said 253 juvenile offense reports were received in March, compared to 228 for the previous month.

Number of juveniles contacted by the department, however, was 368, or 19 less than in February. Of the 368, there were 338 cases disposed of within the juvenile bureau through field interviews, citation hearings and follow-up investigations.

Inspector Teague said 27 cases were referred to Juvenile Court or the probation office. The four largest categories of offenses in March were malicious mischief, 90; disturbances, 53; runaways, 29; and curfew, 24.

Leading violations in February were malicious mischief, 93; disturbances, 72; petty theft, 45; and liquor laws, 32.

Drainage Job Let

A $14,144 contract for revising drainage facilities on Shoreline Highway between Stinson Beach and Marshall has been awarded to Charles I. Cunningham Co. of Oakdale by the State Department of Public Works.

Money Stolen From Cigar Box

A cigar box containing $95 cash was stolen from the cabin of Yves Poupart at Franchini's Chateau, 4500 Redwood Highway, San Rafael, sheriff's officers reported yesterday.

Poupart, employee at the restaurant, told deputies the unlocked cabin was entered Monday night. Burglars last Thursday broke into the restaurant and hauled off a safe containing $2,500 in cash and checks.

Marion A. Thomas, El Cerrito, told deputies his summer home in Woodacre also was burglarized sometime last week by breaking a kitchen window. Two bottles of liquor were taken, Thomas said.

Marin Volunteer Bureau Saluted On Anniversary

The Volunteer Bureau of Marin County plays a big part in maintaining that reputation for the county.

Behind almost every social or educational activity, volunteers are quietly working, giving freely of their time and talents to further the well-being and happiness of others.

Manpower and clerical help are needed in an eye-screening program in Marin nursery schools. Classes for the retarded and the handicapped require many additional hands to help the professional staff.

Today, we salute the Volunteer Bureau of Marin on its first anniversary. The Bureau was launched one year ago by the Junior League of San Francisco Inc. as a community service project.

Thousands of our residents, from Brownie Scouts to senior citizens, serve as volunteers. Hundreds of agencies in civic, cultural, health, welfare, educational and recreational areas rely on volunteers to carry out their programs.

It is likely that the vitality of any community can be measured by the abundance and health of its volunteer programs. If so, it is easy to see why Marin is such a vital and enriching place to live.

In one year, the Volunteer Bureau interviewed 370 potential volunteers and placed 293 in volunteer jobs. Seventy-four agencies are using the Bureau to recruit their volunteers.

The Bureau is compiling Marin's first complete list of service groups—what they do, where they are, and what they offer.

Every four months, it prints and distributes a calendar of meetings and coming events in the county.

The Bureau will help mail 30,000 to 40,000 letters for the Marin Youth Council and the Marin Youth Employment Committee to find gainful activity for youth this summer. And finding challenging jobs and activities for senior citizens is another project of the Volunteer Bureau.

An esimated 10,000 volunteer hours are contributed each year by the volunteer group. At $1.25 minimum wage, that would be a considerable sum that county taxpayers would have to bear, were it not for volunteer help.

But cold statistics do not begin to tell the story. It's the warm, personal, selfless service rendered by these volunteers that helps make Marin "marvelous."

A most happy anniversary to you, Volunteer Bureau. Thank you for being here.

SOME RULES FOR HIKERS

A spokesman for the U.S. Forest Service said it took more than 50 hours to find one hiker who could easily have been found if he had followed simple rules like these:

1. Never go hiking without first consulting a map. Then get your direction from the sun.

2. Fix in your mind the location of two landmarks, such as a high mountain or an unusually large tree. This will help in spotting locations later.

3. Stay away from thick trees and brushy areas.

4. If you are injured, stay where you are, preferably in a large clearing where you can be seen. Put out clothing or some other signal for aerial watchers.

If keeping one's head were an easy task, far more people would do it in a tight situation.

Do some advance planning, not only for trips you intend to make but also for the greatest journey of all for which the stakes are eternal.

Normal Reaction Is Developing On Fisher Education Measure

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Has the rush toward educational reform in California schools slowed to a hesitant crawl?

Assemblyman Charles B. Garrigus, D-Reedley, a junior college teacher and chairman of the Assembly Education Committee, feels a normal reaction is developing as a result of the enactment of the Fisher credentialing bill of 1961. That bill, by then Sen. Hugo Fisher, set up tougher standards for teacher and administrator credentials, including a requirement of five years training.

In addition, the Fisher bill required a major or minor in an academic subject for administrative credentials and excluded from accepted majors or minors such subjects as physical education, industrial arts, home economics, health and business education.

WHILE GARRIGUS feels there may be a reaction to terms of the Fisher bill — a bill has been introduced in the Legislature this year to modify it—he is intent on another type of reform. This move, simply stated, is to return teachers to the classroom and eliminate the cadre of non-teaching specialists.

A bill this year, by Assemblyman George W. Milias, R-Gilroy, would permit majors in physical education, industrial arts, home economics, health and business education to be used for administrative credentials. The measure touched off another exchange in a long series between Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction, and Thomas W. Braden, president of the State Board of Education.

Rafferty won his stunning election victory in 1962 on a platform of attempting to remove frills from education. He said he still stands for this but is in agreement with the Milias bill. In fact, Rafferty would go further and permit the majors and minors excluded in the Fisher bill to be used for teacher credentials.

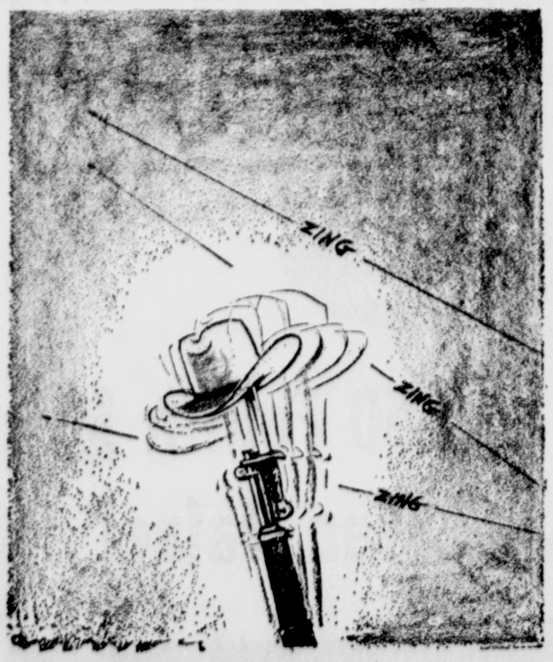

"IF WE WANT to kick these subjects out of school altogether, let's do it," Rafferty said. "But if teachers are teaching them, they should not be relegated to a second-class status by an artificial priority of subjects such as is set up in the Fisher bill."

Rafferty had been quoted as saying his earlier views on the importance of subject matter were at a time of strained relations with Russia but he felt the situation had eased since 1961.

Braden differed sharply, saying that any "emasculation of the basic education requirement would be a betrayal of the victory for excellence in education which the people of California won four years ago."

"THEY HAVE always been the basic subjects," Braden said, referring to the requirements in the Fisher bill, "and we cannot upgrade or downgrade them according to Dr. Rafferty's view of how we're getting along with Russia."

Who Was Woman Who Hit Child?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

To the unknown woman who hit my daughter on her bike in the crosswalk at Fifth and Courts streets on April 7 at about 8:20 a.m.

Do you take a child's word for it that she is not hurt when all she wants is to get away from the awful thing that hit her? Did you ever think of concussion showing up after a couple of hours? Were you in that much of a hurry that you would not even help the child get up off the street? Who picked up her lunch and school books? Not you. Are you so heartless that you would not report what happened to the school (right there) or the police station (one-half block away)? Do you have children? Do you sleep well nights? God have mercy on you that next time the consequences are not worse.

Marincello Needs Probing

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The Marin County Board of Supervisors criticized Assemblyman William Bagley's statement that Terra Linda was "ticky - tacky." This minor, even humorous, remark has caused such a fuss that it has served to obscure the grave moral issue in which Bagley and other officials in our county are involved.

A syndicated column in last Sunday's San Francisco Chronicle stated: "He (Bagley) had also flown to Washington at Frouge's expense to persuade the Interior Department not to oppose the (Marincello) project. He (Bagley) tried to convince Undersecretary John Carver that the 53 towers wouldn't mar the beauty of the Golden Gate."

This article further stated that other persons in Marin with political influence had been hired (i.e., bought) by the Frouge interests.

I suggest that our Board of Supervisors conduct an investigation to determine what elected or appointed officials residing in Marin County are on Frouge's payroll. The investigation might include members of planning commissions, city councils, and the State Legislature.

The Marincello scheme continues to smell—many Marin residents think it is long overdue a public hearing.

Unification Notebook Liked

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Here is a thank-you to the good old I-J and Bob Coppock for exposing the coercion against teachers and students by the Unification people in our school system. There is an "Information Booklet" in favor of unification which says teachers support it with "near unanimity." Most of us suspected that any "near unanimity" behind Big Daddy's putsch against local control of schools and school taxes was something like the near unanimity of a Moscow by-election for precinct commissar.

Thank you again. We needed that.

LBJ's Words Are Confusing

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The double talk and fancy phraseology that come out of Washington are indeed disillusioning, as well as confusing. President Johnson reached a new low . . . when he managed to combine an offer of "unconditional discussions" with continued aerial attacks and a billion dollars in aid—all at the same time!

In plain English it sounds like this: If we can't burn or bomb you into submission, we are willing to buy you. But we will NOT get out of your country and let you choose your own way of life, regardless of what it says in the 1954 Geneva agreement about an all-Viet Nam election.

We're Cruel In Viet Nam

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The "routine" military atrocities carried on in Viet Nam under auspices of the United States have effectively erased our world image as a fair-minded and compassionate nation. We have become brutally aggressive and without principle and an aberration in the sense that Nazi Germany was an aberration. We seem to be capable of committing any Nazi - type outrage against human beings and, in our apathy, we have no right to feel morally superior to the German people. . . .

In consideration of our bombing raids on primitive villages, our napalm, nausea gas, retaliations, interrogations, persuation of children to inform on parents, crop poisoning, forest burning, etc., our virtue becomes no more than monstrous hypocrisy.

The desperate and stupid attempt by our country to save prestige in S. E. Asia has cost us our position as a humanitarian nation in the world. We have become the international despot, able to persuade only by force, willing to use any tactics and atrocities. If our State Department truly represents the American people, then we are a sick and desperate nation.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A YOUNG VISITOR, anxious to please patriarch Bernard Baruch, told him recently, "My, sir, you're looking well!" Angrily, Mr. Baruch replied, "The fellow who announced that there are seven ages of man was wrong. There are three. The first is Youth. The second is Middle Age. And the third is, "My sir, you're looking well!"

"I HAVE implicit trust in you," a Miami Beach merchant assured Jackie Gleason, "because I've observed that fat men are invariably honest." "You'd be too," responded Gleason, "if you couldn't run very fast."

A PATRON asked a waiter at an all-night delicatessen on the Main Stem, "How's business?" "It could be worse," opined the waiter. "I might own it!"

President's Speech On Viet Nam Has No Hints Of Appeasement

WASHINGTON—It is reasonable that the Republican supporters of President Lyndon B. Johnson's strong policy in Viet Nam should show some worry that his proposal for "unconditional discussions" may lead into an appeasement trap.

This is a fair warning. It is an honest warning. There is such a potential danger.

BUT I SEE nothing in the president's talk - and - defend proposal which contains the merest flicker of appeasement. I see nothing in the mood or substance of his Johns Hopkins speech which suggests any naive softness in the administration's position.

If Johnson's willingness to talk rested on a record of weakness and indecision, it would be untenable and perilous.

Since it rests on a two-month record of firmness and decisiveness in action, it is prudent and constructive.

IT NEEDS to be understood that, while the president has put no conditions on our willingness to seek a settlement, there are conditions on the kind of settlement which we will accept.

The conditions to a settlement by negotiation are: (1) an end to Hanoi's aggression and (2) the independence of South Viet Nam and its freedom from attack.

"We will never be second in the search for such a peaceful settlement," Johnson declared.

THAT IS WISE — and it is sound as long as it rests on the commitment that the defense will continue and the military pressure mount until the aggression ends, talks or no talks.

It does rest on that commitment. And it rests on a sequence of military actions which demonstrates firmness of purpose, which will mount as much and as long as necessary. This is why willingness to talk and defend simultaneously is safe.

It is already producing some good results.

IT IS WINNING for the U. S. just about the maximum world support for the military course we are having to pursue to defend South Viet Nam and which inevitably scares the timid.

It is also winning for the U. S. a tremendous increase in support from neutral countries because the president has succeeded in putting the onus for not being willing to talk on the aggressors.

The Johns Hopkins speech could not have been safely delivered two months ago, even a month ago. Then it would have caused Hanoi to conclude that it was an act of softness and evidence that they had the U. S. licked. It would have caused Saigon to fear the worst, to suspect that we were courting an excuse to scuttle and run.

MILITARY INACTION and a proposal to talk would have been the sure ingredients of appeasement.

Mounting military pressure —with every evidence that it will continue as long as needed —and a proposal to talk are the ingredients of constructive diplomacy. The cement which seals them together is the will to win. "We will not be defeated," the president said. Ally and adversary now know that he means it.

Some are suggesting that the offer of a substantial American investment in a collective U. N. aid program for the Southeast Asian nations is an idle and foolish bid to buy peace. That misses the point entirely.

THE PROSPECT of outside help in development, after so much internal and international strife, means, for example, that the South Vietnamese will not only be fighting for freedom but for progress toward a better life. It also means that, as long as the Hanoi - Communist aggression continues, it will be increasingly clear to others that Hanoi is fighting against both freedom and progress.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Russ Missiles Used Against U.S. Planes

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The small but lethally effective North Vietnamese air force is using the latest-type Soviet air-to-air missiles against U. S. planes.

These radar-guided missiles were first employed in combat to shoot down two U. S. F-105 jets in the initial air engagement of the Viet Nam war.

ACCORDING TO suppressed reports of that battle now on President Lyndon B. Johnson's desk, the Russian-made missiles were fired from slow-flying MIG-15s or MIG-17s nearly 10 miles from the U. S. air attack against the Thanh Hoa railroad and highway bridge, 76 miles south of Hanoi.

The F-105 pilots never had a chance to take counter measures. The Red missiles struck without warning. The attacking MIGs were out of range of U. S. fighter-escort planes even before their missiles hit the F-105s.

These new air-to-air missiles, which the Soviet began testing more than two years ago, appear to have a much longer range than the Sidewinder, the comparable rocket now used by U. S. interceptors.

THE F-105s, although far swifter than their foes, were sitting ducks for the MIGs, since they were engaged in a bombing mission—carrying an overload of iron bombs that drastically reduced their speed. However, it is very doubtful the F-105s could have escaped the deadly Soviet missiles even without this handicap.

The Air Force report shows that the fighter-escort planes protecting the F-105s never were in position to intercept the attacking MIGs because the U. S. jets were "flying blind"—without their "mother" radar-guidance plane.

Drum-tight White House restrictions on U. S. air operations bar the use of the bigger "mother" plane over North Viet Nam. This radar-control aircraft normally is used to warn U. S. planes of approaching enemy fighters.

WHILE THE F-105s' radar is superior to the MIGs', this sensitive equipment is designed for a specific purpose—to scan a very small space directly in front of the plane.

Only the "mother" aircraft carries on radar searching in all directions and covering long distances. Had one of these radar planes been guiding the F-105s, as the Air Force and Navy wanted, its crew could have flashed a warning of the coming attack.

In sharp contrast to the controls placed on U.S. planes, the Communist MIGs were in constant touch with their own ground-radar, almost directly beneath them, and thus had an added advantage over the F-105s.

BEHIND THE deliberate suppression of the use of Soviet air-to-air missiles in Viet Nam is the "fig leaf" policy of McGeorge Bundy, the president's chief adviser on that country.

Known in White House circles as "the man who guides the president's finger on the Viet Nam trigger," Bundy wants all evidence of Soviet involvement in that conflict either concealed or played down, on the ground it might inflame the American public into demanding a tougher policy toward Russia.

San Anselmo Local Politics Is Due For Some Excitement

SAN ANSELMO local politics is due for some excitement. Several years ago commuters worked to push through some reforms, but these residents are now undergoing a resurgence of interest and have new leaders.

The local chamber of commerce also has "Young Turks" which have now gained control.

Next in line may be the city council. If so, the next council election will be a battle, not a simple case of incumbents keeping their chairs by keeping their noses clean.

THE PREVIOUS campaign led to the city government form being changed, with the addition of a city administrator and city engineer. It was pushed, in part, by the San Anselmo Homes Assn., which was formed at that time.

The association sponsored candidates for council and had members placed on the planning commission.

In the last city election, the association was quiet. But its new president, Kenneth Anderson, has said he expects the group to support council candidates in the next election. Two members of the city planning commission belong to the association.

THE PUSH by the new home owners will be for a "get tough" policy on planning. One hope is that subdividers will be forced to provide more public works, such as street improvements, in return for permission to build.

The city's proposed ordinance giving the planning commission architectural review power may be a step in that direction.

New leadership entered the chamber of commerce some time ago also. But ex-president Richard A. Kientz did not have the votes to make all the changes he wanted.

When William S. Trewhella took over, the persons pushing for a change had more power. Manager George G. Washburn was fired. The resignation of A. Von Rotz last week from the chamber board of directors was another example of similar change.

WHAT THE chamber wants is some quick action to increase development of the downtown area, especially some early rezoning. The council has been holding off on zone changes awaiting the formation of a parking assessment district.

But the district also seems to have bogged down, and pressure for rezoning is increasing. If new stores or apartments are built on land to be used for parking lots, the proposed district may well fall through.

City Administrator Douglas E. Flautt has been confident that the parking district can be formed. Much of the commercial property has been signed up. The problem has been with owners of houses west of San Anselmo Avenue.

FLAUTT AND the council are going to continue under pressure to tighten up on new devolpment and at the same time to allow new development, depending on who is doing the pushing.

But the new planning policies hitting developers will be aimed at outside the downtown area, if the homes association leaders can be believed. Members were talking about pushing up local taxes to improve residential streets, if necessary.

One sign of the lack of conflict between the two new groups was that the chamber offered the homes association a formal membership in the chamber, in return for a reciprocal arrangement.

Columnist Finds Greek Easier To Understand Than Newspaper

IT'S ALL VERY confusing: I can solve the daily crossword puzzle with only a minimum of effort, but the rest of the paper often baffles me completely. Though I've been speaking English all my life and had only a couple of years of Greek at high school, sometimes I think I understand the ancient tongue better. Thus, I can still quote from memory some passages from Xenophon's Anabasis and translate them accurately, too; whereas many a column of Walter Lippmann's, say, is as unintelligible to me as was the inscription on an Egyptian monument before the discovery of the Rosetta Stone.

It may be because Attic Greek is a dead tongue and the meaning of the words can not be altered even by our Supreme Court, while modern English is flexible and subject to change without previous notice. E. g., for hundreds of years "liberal denoted one who fought the autocratic power of the state; today it signifies the exact opposite, and the individualist is labeled "reactionary."

OR TAKE "moderate": When Greek philosophers preached moderation, they had a word for it and do you know what it meant? Moderation, of all things!

But when the modern liberal inveighs against excess and preaches moderation—and he hasn't been doing much of anything else lately — he's usually raining down fire and brimstone on the immoderates as he urges them to repent and be as moderate as he is.

Even when he leads a demonstration in which pop bottles fly and policemen attempting to keep order are sent to the hospital, it isn't a riot but an illustration of non-violence. As long as the demonstration takes place in the middle of the street usually reserved for traffic, he remains a middle-of-the-roader. See what I mean?

AND THE RECORDS of the vagaries of Nelson Rockefeller are just as bewildering. When that eager candidate—the only difference between him and William Jennings Bryan is that Bryan was actually nominated — spoke recently at a meeting of New York Republicans, he was introduced by the "moderate" chairman as the man who had done the most to save the GOP from pursuing the path of Nazism, fascism and communism. And Rocky, like George Washington, did not deny that he had done all this with his little hatchet, which used to chop down the 1964 standard-bearer.

TAKE VIET NAM — no, strike that because as sure as taxes some liberal would quote the phrase to prove I was promulgating colonialism: make it, "in the case of Viet Nam." If you're sure of what our policy is in that unhappy country, you're a better man than I am at following the course of our Ship of State. One day the president takes a fighting stance and sounds off like Cassius Clay on the eve of a title bout, and our State Department cheers his firm leadership; the following day, LBJ is smoking a peace pipe and sounds like Linus Pauling —and state cheers even louder.

The best guess is that we are conducting what the boys call "a controlled experiment." One set of bombers goes out daily to strafe Hanoi; the other set is armed only with money and drops a billion dollars at strategic points.

THAT MIGHT explain why we now make use of defoliation, the mere mention of which used to send a shudder down administration spines. If you drop a billion dollars into dense foliage, your enemy may never spot it; but clear the vegetation and he is sure to see it and realize your intentions are honorable. And figure there's more where the first billion came from, once he meets you at the bargaining table.

'U' Notebook Held Arrogant

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Mr. Coppock was in rare form when he wrote his "Reporter's Notebook" column for April 8. His arrogant disregard for truth was bursting out all over.

His implication that, in the Tamalpais District, students may not speak their minds for fear of teacher reprisal through grades; and, likewise, that teachers may not speak out for fear of administrator reprisal through promotions is utter nonsense. These irresponsible insinuations are insulting to the professional integrity of all teachers and administrators as well as to the intelligence of our students. . . .

As professional educators, we recognize the superiority of and need for a school district unified around the present Tam District, and we are working toward that end without compulsion or coercion of any kind. Furthermore, we are convinced that the voters will vote YES ON U to provide top quality education to all the students of our districts.

Regarding that advertisement run by the Frouge Corp. quoting Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey . . . out of context (I-J, April 6): . . .

High rise apartments on now open land in view of the Golden Gate are definitely not what Mr. Humphrey referred to when he wrote, "The common thread running through all conservation work is a concern with the American land —using it for maximum public benefit today, while maintaining its values for the tremendous needs of tomorrow."

This advertisement, when brought to Mr. Humphrey's attention, will certainly bring a reply from him. . . .

Yellowjacket Queens Are Out

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Yesterday in the yard I saw my first springtime yellowjacket and promptly killed it. These are not the ordinary summertime type, but actually are the queens who have been dormant all winter and are now awake and looking for a place to start a nest. They are about twice as large as usual and the tail, particularly, is oversize with more stripes. On warm days they can be seen probing for openings near the roof or slowly exploring the ground. . . . They move slowly, flying a few inches above the ground and generally stay in a small area for some time doing a thorough job of exploration, so can be stalked and killed easily.

I am writing to suggest that you run an article now and bring this to the attention of your readers. When I remember the great deal of space used in the paper, the amount of feverish concern of many, and even the involving of the Mosquito Abatement crews last summer, . . . I think a little of the same activity now will be much more effective. Every yellowjacket killed now means one complete nest that won't be here in the summer.

Do To Russians What They Do

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am a firm believer in the policy that, when formal protests do not bring an end to wrong, you give the enemy a little of his own medicine. Such should be the case in the recent violation of West German air space by Soviet jets.

The Soviets have shot down many U. S. planes that violated their air space, most by accident and most unarmed; some were purposely lured off course by false Soviet radio signals.

I we had done unto them as they had done unto us, they would have stopped their dangerous flights over West Berlin, in which they made 25 passes at Congress Hall and made targets of the American and British headquarters with dummy bullets (how could we be sure in advance that there weren't live bullets mixed in with the dummy ones?).

Truck Driver Gets Thanks

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Re: My Guardian Angel Drove a Truck Yesterday.

My husband and I were on 101 nearing San Rafael. . . . A huge, red tractor-trailer drew alongside on our right and gave a blast on his horn. . . . The driver pointed to our right front wheel, made a fist and looking gravely concerned, went on. He drove ahead until it seemed safe to stop and we came up to him. . . . My husband got out and looked and was aghast at what he saw. There was a bulge the size of a huge fist, ON OUR RIGHT FRONT TIRE . . . ON THE INSIDE! How that truck driver was sharp enough to notice anything wrong with our tire was amazing. . . .

We drove to a filling station close by and changed tires and the attendant said that, had we driven much further, had we been going fast (or even slowly) on the wet highway, my husband could have lost complete control of the car. . . .

I cannot thank that truck driver (my husband did at the time), but a mere thank you is so inadequate. The kindness and thoughtfulness of this stranger will never be forgotten. . . . I want to take this opportunity to say, "Thank you, sir, and God bless you always."

This association favors continuation of the joint recreation program which in the past was supported out of Corte Madera general budget. It is within the powers of the Town Council to provide funds for this purpose. Rather than to continue doing so, the Council asked the voters to approve Ordinance 439 establishing a tax to maintain park and recreational facilities—this tax to be in addition to all other taxes authorized. . . .

The Council has increased the tax potential available for Town projects paid out of the General Fund by $.06, because if Ordinance 439 is passed, then the Council will be free to pay for Joint Recreation out of the new "Special Tax" revenue, having in fact increased taxes. Conversely, if the Ordinance fails, the Council will be able to state that voters do not want Joint Recreation—and will then be able to use funds formerly allotted to Recreation for other Town projects. . . .

Finally, assurances by the Council that Special Tax funds will be used for continuation of the Joint Recreation Program are not binding on future Councils. . . . For these basic reasons we oppose passage of this ordinance.

Has No Use For Cemetery

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In "Letters to the Editor," I note Helen Nightingale's suggestion to the effect that a military cemetery be established on the headlands of Marin. Might I point out that the military already has many surplus acres situate in headland areas for more appropriate for use as a cemetery than are the privately owned lands now designated for potential development as Marincello. I see no need to remove more land from our tax rolls to establish a monument to "Man's Inhumanity to Man."

Hawaii's Punch Bowl is impressive — especially on Lei Day when the school children parade and decorate the graves with colorful leis, but I doubt our ability or desire to create a tourist attraction of that kind here in Marin. The establishment of a Headlands Memorial Cemetery is a laudable thought. It should, however, overlook the Pacific where so many gave so much for so little in the way of lasting peace.

Men Are Still Machines' Masters

Editor, Independent-Journal:

On April 7, an interesting cartoon appeared on the editorial page of the Independent-Journal depicting Mr. George Gnoss in the clutches of an IBM machine. The caption read: "I'm at its mercy."

In this era of automation, it has become increasingly apparent that the IBM machine has become a scapegoat which, when accused, cannot answer the charges because of the language barrier. I believe that the statement should read: "The machine is at my mercy." You see, the computer is merely an obedient idiot; that is to say, a computer will only do what it is told to do. Hence, the computer is really at the mercy of the human beings who program it. However, it may not be long before the computer will be able to think for itself. Only then will man be at the mercy of the machine.

Dept. Of Justice Can Probe KKK

Editor, Independent-Journal:

A correspondent recently questioned the attitude of the American Civil Liberties Union regarding the proposed investigation by the House Un-American Activities Committee of the Klu Klux Klan. My present understanding of the ACLU's position confirms its consistency. The very existence and methodology of HUAC is unconstitutional and an affront to traditional American concepts of due process and fair play. Any criminal activities of the KKK which might be investigated—such as voter intimidation, arson or violence—clearly come within the jurisdiction of the Department of Justice. The courts provide a proper forum for the administration of justice, and HUAC has no legitimate role to play.

The Supreme Court has ruled that "Exposure for exposure's sake" is unconstitutional, and HUAC's efforts to punish and intimidate via investigation is odious. Congress established HUAC to facilitate the construction of new and necessary legislation; but this effort has been a monstrous and expensive failure. The ACLU opposes the KKK scrutiny as it would any proposed HUAC malfeasance!

Can't Children Think For Selves?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I'd always been under the impression that parents of the Tamalpais Union High School District students congratulated themselves for rearing exceptional children whose outstanding quality was the ability to think logically for themselves.

The Reporter's Notebook (I-J, April 8) written by Robert M. Coppock, citing two instances of Redwood High School parents, seems to disprove this impression.

"Think as I think!" is the very apparent demand of both parents described in this article. This, of course, immediately rules out any hope of logical self-thought. . . .

My former impression had been that enlightened parents welcomed and even provided exposure of their students to all views of an issue so that the students could learn to seek truth in formulating their basic premises and analyze objectively in the process of arriving at their conclusions.

And when these students disagree with their parents (or teachers) and offer proof to support their belief, it seems that the enlightened parent wouldn't be too old, or to set, or too conceited or too proud to say, "You're right!!"

Partial Service Not Needed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am writing in reference to your editorial, titled "Direct Phoning Service Should Not Be Delayed," which appeared April 8.

You refer to Western California Telephone Co., "which operates phone service in the Novato area." For your information, Western California Telephone Co. is a subsidiary of the General Telephone and Electronics Corp., the fifth largest in the industry. GT&E Corp. holds the franchise in this area, while Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. has jurisdiction in the San Rafael-Ignacio area.

We have already been involved, and finally resolved, local extended service into Ignacio under the two jurisdictions. From this we learned of the inequities occasioned by partial extended service. Inasmuch as there are many more phone calls made between Novato and San Rafael than there are made between Ignacio and San Rafael, we shudder to think of the inequities that would be created by granting, as you suggest, one extended service without the other.

It was for this reason that the Public Utilities Commission wisely voted unanimously to further investigate. . . .

Let's exercise a little patience and restraint, Mr. Editor, at least until the PUC has had the opportunity of holding its hearing here locally on the subject within the next 30 days.

AUDITED PAID CIRCULATION ABC

One in a series of messages to advertisers

No myths or mysteries, just the facts

The finest advertising doesn't have a chance unless it is seen or heard. The circulation of an advertisement is vital to its success. And, circulation is people ...not the number of advertisements printed or anticipated or projected.

No advertiser can afford expensive guessing. Positive proof of circulation should be demanded. Vague generalities should be discounted. Charts, formulas, and promises are not readers, and can lead your advertising off saies target.

The actual circulation figures...verified count...of this newspaper are available through the report of the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

Exactly how many units of your advertising are delivered into the hands of paying customers? How much do they pay to see your advertising? Where and how is this advertising being delivered?

This is the type of circulation information that helps keep your advertising and advertising budget aimed in the right direction. No camouflage, just facts and figures.

THE FAMILY CIRCUS

"'Bye, Grandma! We'll send you a box full of everything you left behind."

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, April 15, the 105th day of 1965 with 260 to follow.

The moon is full. The morning stars are Mars and Saturn. The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Mercury.

Florentine painter Leonardo Da Vinci was born on this day in 1452.

On this day in history:

In 1861, President Abraham Lincoln sent Congress a message recognizing a state of civil war and called for 75,000 volunteer soldiers.

In 1865, President Abraham Lincoln died and three hours later Andrew Johnson was sworn in as the president of the United States.

In 1945, President Franklin Delano Roosevelt was buried.

A thought for the day—American writer Thomas Wolfe said: "There is no spectacle on earth more appealing than that of a beautiful woman in the act of cooking dinner for someone she loves."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Fighting Yarborough Stops Contract In Bridge Game

When you hold a hand with no card higher than a nine, some opponent is sure to tell you that what matters is how you play your cards, not what cards you hold.

Don't you believe it. You can be just as brilliant (and twice as successful) with aces and deuces as with deuces and treys. Still, when the bad days come, put up a good fight and your horrible cards.

Opening lead — ♣ K

A lesson in fighting with a Yarborough was furnished a couple of months ago in the Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament, entered by thousands of college students in more than 200 colleges. The East hand furnishes the key to the defense against four hearts.

TWO TRICKS

West takes the first two tricks with the king and queen of clubs, and can see an eventual third trick in the form of the ace of trumps. One other trick is needed to defeat the contract.

Since the bidding indicates that South must hold the ace of spades, West must try to develop the nine of hearts as the setting trick.

West makes the first move in this direction by leading a low club at the third trick. East knows that west has the ace of clubs and has deliberately underled it.

OVER-RUFF

Obviously, East is expected to ruff, and he should do so with the six.

The idea is to make South over-ruff with a trump that he needs for some other purpose.

South must use the ten of trumps to over-ruff, and he slyly leads back the jack of trumps, hoping to sneak the trick by.

LOW CLUB

West steps up with the ace of trumps to lead another low club while East still has a trump.

East ruffs with the eight of trumps, and South must use the queen to over-ruff.

Now South can draw one round of trumps with the king, but West is sure to take the setting trick with the nine of trumps.

DAILY QUESTION

Dealer opens with one spade, your partner doubles, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♥ 8 6 4
♦ 8 6 5 3

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two diamonds.

The weaker the hand, the more essential the takeout. (If your hand is any weaker than this, don't bother to answer any questions about it.)

Peace Groups Set Viet Vigil At Courthouse

Several Marin County peace groups will hold a silent vigil Saturday from 11 a.m. to noon in front of the San Rafael Courthouse urging a peaceful settlement of the war in Viet Nam.

The groups will display banners protesting the use of military force in the war, and will ask persons to sign letters to President Lyndon Johnson urging peace.

A motorcade to San Francisco will be formed at 1 p.m. to attend a rally with other Bay Area peace groups in front of the Federal Building on Golden Gate Avenue.

Marin County groups participating include the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, People for Peace, and Women for Peace.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

VAN DELLEN

M. S. writes: "What are the benefits and hazards of taking female sex hormones? Are they used indefinitely after the menopause? Can their use be discontinued without ill effects?" These questions are packed with dynamite and will blow apart any medical meeting when discussed.

Female sex hormones are the products of glands of internal secretions (estrogens) and have functions in addition to regulating the sexual cycle. They are prepared from many sources and several types are on the market. Hormones are prescribed for a variety of monthly miseries and controversy stems from the fact that they are used for many opposite disorders.

ESTROGENS are used most frequently to relieve menopausal symptoms. Conservative physicians prescribe them only when the woman is bothered with hot flushes. He recommends a tranquilizer for phychic disturbances. Other physicians regard the menopausal woman as a castrate who has lost the use of her ovaries. Some prescribe estrogens for life or perhaps until age 60.

The conservative regards the change of life as a normal phenomenon and is aware of the possible relationship between estrogens and malignancy. They do not cause cancer but may aggravate the condition after it develops. Uterine bleeding and pelvic congestion are sequels of this therapy.

PROPONENTS of continuous estrogen therapy believe the advantages outweigh the disadvantages. Bleeding and dangers associated with malignancy are avoided by adjusting the dosage and periodic examinations for breast and pelvic malignancies. The advantages are delaying hardening of the arteries, softening of the bone (osteoporosis), and degenerative changes in the skin and mucous membranes.

The aging process is more than a lack of the female sex hormones and time will tell whether the advantages of continuous estrogen use will materialize. There are no ill effects when the hormones are discontinued because they are not habit-forming.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

SOAP DISCIPLINE

Mrs. R. writes: Will any harm come from washing out a child's mouth with soap for misbehavior?

REPLY

No, but it probably will not wash away his sins. There are better disciplinary measures and, besides, some youngsters like the taste of soap.

PROMPT TREATMENT BEST

G. H. writes: Should all forms of insanity be attended to immediately?

REPLY

Yes, because the longer the abnormality is allowed to continue, the more difficult it may be to treat.

MUSCLE CONTRACTIONS

D. E. writes: Does peristalsis have anything to do with colitis?

REPLY

Yes. Peristalsis refers to the contraction of the muscles of the intestines forcing food along the passageways. These are more active and often painful when the colon is infected or irritated (colitis).

THE SAVAGE CELL

Cancer Causing Agent In Polio Vaccine Scares

Scientists estimate that a majority of the many millions vaccinated against polio up to the summer of 1961 received SV-40 in both oral and injected vaccines. U.S. vaccines since then have been clean. Vaccines used in the Soviet Union and Cuba were decontaminated later.

There is not the slightest direct evidence that SV-40 has induced cancer in any human. Adult volunteers had their noses and throats sprayed with SV-40, and suffered only mild, passing respiratory difficulty. Moreover, SV-40 failed to induce cancer in mice or rats.

It usually takes many years for cancer to appear in humans following contact with the cancer-causing agent, however, and it may be some time before the real consequences of SV-40 exposure are known. It is entirely possible that SV-40 may even have immunized people against some forms of cancer.

Newly developed facts have been found to place some of those inoculated against both polio and a respiratory disease in double jeopardy.

Drs. John J. Trentin and Yoshiro Yabe of Baylor University College of Medicine and Frank Taylor of M. D. Anderson Hospital, Houston, reported in the spring of 1962 that one type of adenovirus itself causes concer when instilled in the lungs of newborn hamsters.

From five to 15 weeks following treatment, up to 90 per cent of the animals died of tumors which filled their chests.

In these experiments, the Trentin group used adenovirus 12. Others later induced experimental cancers with adenovirus 18 and adenovirus 7. Adenoviruses of types 3, 4 and 7 have been used in human vaccines. Two years after finding adenovirus 12 carcinogenic, the Trentin group produced a live vaccine against it; it was effective in hamsters and, to a degree, in mice.

Adenoviruses, first isolated in 1953 in human adenoids, are a common cause of respiratory infection among children and, even more so, among military service recruits.

Adenovirus infection differs from the common cold in that its onset is more gradual and the symptoms are more severe and longer lasting.

One cannot say with certainty whether a person receiving a vaccine containing two distinct viruses—like SV-40 and adenovirus—each of which causes cancer in newborn hamsters, would run a greater risk than is offered by a single virus.

The SV-40 experience has indicated it might be a good idea tto examine the long-term effect of all vaccines.

Vaccinia virus, like that received in smallpox shots, is commonly used to enhance the effect of carcinogenic chemicals in inducing cancer in experimental animals. Against this disquieting circumstance, however, are the irrefutable facts that immunization has virtually wiped out a plethora of plagues.

The big question, which remains unanswered at this writing is: Do viruses cause human cancers?

Scientific proof that viruses do cause human cancers would entail rigid procedures. The virus would have to be (1) shown to be present in every case of the disease, (2) cutlivated in pure culture, (3) made to produce the disease when removed from culture and inoculated into humans, and (4) recovered from the deliberately infected humans and grown again in culture. The law does not permit this.

One urgent problem is to determine if man is susceptible to animal cancer viruses and how such virus is transmitted. With this knowledge it might be possible to ward off some human cancers.

A fringe benefit has been the development of antiviral drugs. A few clever preparations — of limited value against cancers—already show promise of overcoming virus infections in animals and man.

We live in an atmophere loaded with viruses—bad, inconsequential and good. Broad new vistas of preventing and treating virus disease are opening. Some of the findings have implications for controlling cancer —possibly and hopefully human cancer.

Baby Squirrel Is Becoming Television Star

A baby gray squirrel that lives in the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum instead of a hollow tree is becoming a television star before it's even old enough to crack a walnut.

The furry youngster and museum naturalist Diane Williams are appearing on the "Marshal J" television program, 7 to 8 a.m. each Thursday on Channel 7. The squirrel's growth is being followed by youngsters all over the Bay Area.

The squirrel is the lone survivor of three foundlings that apparently fell out of their nest and were turned over to the museum at Albert Park, San Rafael.

Sculpture Show Set At Center

The work of some 25 California sculptors will be displayed on all floors of the Marin Civic Center, beginning May 2, from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. weekdays and until 5 p.m. weekends.

The exhibit, entitled "The Growing Edge of California Scultpure" is the first major exhibition by the Marin Museum Assn.

Included will be a work by Robert Shinn of Sausalito. A panel of judges will present the Frank Lloyd Wright Memorial Award to the sculptor who "most fully realizes classical ideals of sculpture in a contemporary idiom."

'Miss Nancy' Is Returning

Mrs. Nancy Besst Townsley of Santa Venetia, known to tiny television fans as "Miss Nancy," will return to KTVU's "Romper Room" program May 3 after a six-month leave of absence.

She left her spot on the TV kindergarten in October to await the birth of her first child.

On Feb. 2, just four days before the baby was born, her husband, Capt. Pat Townsley, was killed along with another officer in the crash of an Air Force jet fighter plane near Hamilton Air Force Base.

Cystic Fibrosis Group Elects

Mrs. Frederick Frauens of San Anselmo was installed president of the Marin Chapter of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation yesterday.

Other officers installed were: vice president, Mrs. Donn Lando, Santa Venetia; treasurer, Mrs. Howard Miller, Lucas Valley; correspondence secretary, Mrs. Louise Roncarati, Lucas Valley; recording secretary, Mrs. John Torre, San Rafael.

Comedy Kids Around Without Kid Gloves

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—A performer or writer who can offer a respite of good nature and humor kidding a subject that is of deep concern to his fellow citizens is a rare soul, and is bound to draw thanks from all sides. Last night, Dick Van Dyke's CBS-TV comedy series applied its wit to the theme of inter-racial relations, in a half-hour attempt to create a pause that refreshes.

The device employed was hilarious. Van Dyke, who portrays a comedy writer in the series, is asked to attend a formal banquet with his wife to accept an award for his boss' show from an organization called "The Committee for Inter-racial Understanding." Unfortunately, shortly before they are due at the banquet, Van Dyke and his spouse (Mary Tyler Moore) accidentally dye their hands an indeligle black by dipping them into a pot that contains a costume to be worn by their son in a play.

Panic sets in. What to do! Should they go? Should they not? How can they cover up what they are afraid will cause embarrassment?

Well, finally, a decision is made. Miss Moore will wear gloves to the banquet. That's easy and natural. But Van Dyke will wear gloves too. He will explain that he has something wrong with his hands. So Van Dyke and spouse arrive at the affair. He gives the excuse he has decided to stand by, keeps his gloves on, and finally is presented with a trophy. It says: "Truth is the doorway to understanding." Well, he figures, if truth is really the doorway to understanding, he is going to tell the truth and get some practical results.

Then he gets up and does, indeed, tell the truth. He realizes that in worrying about offending the sensitivities of others, he was being overly sensitive himself.

THE NEW SUNNY HILLS

Construction work begun on this cluster of five buildings for the Sunny Hills Orphanage in San Anselmo is expected to be completed in another year. The project is under way behind present Sunny Hills buildings on the north side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, which will be torn down later to make way for a commercial development. New facilities will consist of four cottages, each accommodating 10 children, and a large, central building for administration, clinical and educational service, to cost $613,000. The project was designed by Gromme and Priestley. Construction is by Pacific Coast Builders. Thomas Church will do the landscaping.

Stored Tools Gone

Walter H. Dorrell, a tenant at Carmel Hotel, 830 B Street, San Rafael, told police Tuesday that tools worth between $150 and $200, which he stored in a garage owned by Kenneth Stevens at 517 B Street, disapepared Friday.

Young Musicians Set For Festival, Concert

More than 250 young Marin County musicians will perform in the Marin Elementary School Honor Music Festival and Concert at Del Mar School, Tiburon, on May 8, starting 8 p.m.

The event, sponsored by the public school music teachers of the county in cooperation with the Reed School District and the county superintendent of schools, will have a band of about 100 students, a similar sized chorus, and a string orchestra of some 60 players.

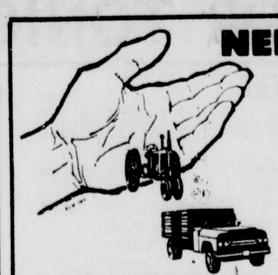

Notable guest musicians will be Richard Condi, conductor of the Salt Lake Mormon Tabernacle Choir, who will guide the festival chorus; William Clapper of Monterey High School, who will conduct the band, and Lucien Miller, director of the Marin "Workshop for Strings," conducting the string orchestra.

Host for this year's festival and concert is Reed School District.

Terra Linda Firemen To Get Insurance

Directors of Terra Linda Community Services District Tuesday night agreed on a health and life insurance plan for the district's three paid firemen.

Cost of the program was not available. Directors expect to know the cost and take final action at the May 11 meeting, Secretary Cleo D. Murray reported.

Greyhound Seeks To Stop Bay Area Commuter Service

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Greyhound bus lines would like to stop all commuter service in the Bay Area, the Public Utilities Commission was told yesterday.

Attorney Harold J. McCarthy, a member of the PUC staff, added that commuter service available to the public "is atrocious."

McCarthy commented at hearings before the commission on Greyhound's petition for a rate increase in both statewide and local commuter fares.

Greyhound has asked for a 5 per cent boost in its statewide fares, a 20 per cent increase in Contra Costa commuter fares, and a $2 raise for 20-ticket commuter books on the Peninsula.

Henry Jordan, Long Beach city engineer, maintained that rates in the San Francisco Bay Area should be raised enough to cover the $847,000 loss which Greyhound expects even if it gets its over-all increase.

Commission Absences Stall Larkspur Votes

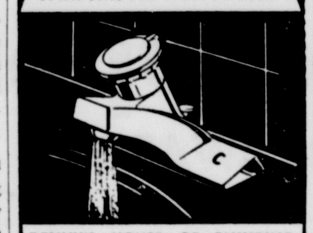

Because two members of the Larkspur Planning Commission, William G. Fleckles and William P. Schnell, were absent, major items before the Larkspur planning commission Tuesday were put over to a special meeting at 8 p.m. next Tuesday at the City Hall.

The commission agreed to oppose allowing rest homes and convalescent hospitals in the light commercial zone.

Pump Parts Taken

Theft of several parts from a pump at a new construction site in the Bel Marin Keys area was reported to sheriff's officers Tuesday by Edward VanMeter, foreman for Luhr and Wendt contractors of Rio Vista.

The issue is FAIR and FREE ELECTIONS

We do not presume to take any position on the educational merits of any proposals for unification of school districts, but the forthcoming Tamalpais Unification election presents a threat to free and fair elections which compels us to speak out.

No election is free or fair when the electors are bribed. The 1964 Unruh Act offers a bribe of $15 per pupil for a favorable vote.

No election is free or fair when the electors have no choice. The electorate's "No" vote in June, 1964, has been ignored and they are required to vote again on the same plan without an opportunity to vote on an alternative measure.

When state money and administrative inflexibility keep us from participating in meaningful decisions at the polls, our franchises are in peril. These issues transcend this election and compel us to recommend a "No" vote on April 20th.
